Sketches Of Algeria During The Kabyle War:

Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War Hugh Mulleneux Walmsley, 1858      Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War Hugh Mulleneux Walmsley, 2025-05-22 Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War offers a firsthand account of Algeria in the mid 19th century written by Hugh Mulleneux Walmsley. This volume provides insights into the landscape, culture, and conflict of the region during a period of significant upheaval. Walmsley's narrative captures the essence of Algerian life and the complexities of the Kabyle War, offering a valuable historical perspective. Readers interested in colonial history, military campaigns, or travel writing will find this work a compelling window into a bygone era. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps, as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world, and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity, individual, or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War (Classic Reprint) Hugh Mulleneux Walmsley, 2017-12-10. Excerpt from Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War: Meeting one day with a French officer of some standing whom I had previously known in the East during the Russian campaign, I received an invitation to him in Algeria, whither he was ordered. An expedition for the final subjugation of Kabylia was talked of. Here then was an opportunity such as I had long sought for and might never meet with. But permission had to be obtained from the French Minister at War, and it was in vain I solicited that permission, though backed by the recommendation of Lord Cowley and the British Embassy. How I besieged Marshal Vaillant and how I totally failed in moving him to grant me permission to accompany the French invading column, how through the kindness of the Chief of the Staff in Algeria I partially succeeded, would afford little interest to the reader.
