

Reflection is a useful skill

Reflecting helps you develop your skills and review their effectiveness, rather than just carry on doing things as you have always done them. It is about questioning, in a positive way, what you do and why you do it and then deciding whether there is a better, or more efficient, way of doing it in the future.

Skill Education Reflection Experie:

Skill and Education: Reflection and Experience Bo Göransson, Magnus Florin, 2012-12-06 This book has an important starting point in the conference held in Stockholm in May June 1988 on Culture Language and Artificial Intelligence It assembled more than 300 researchers and practitioners in the fields of technology philosophy history of ideas literature linguistics social science etc The conference was an initiative from the Swedish Center for Working Life based on the project AI Based Systems and the Future of Language Knowledge and Responsibility in Professions within the COST 13 programme of the European Commission Participants in the conference and researchers related to its aims were chosen to contribute to this book It is preceded by Knowledge Skill and Artificial Intelligence ed B G Göransson and I Josefson Springer Verlag 1988 Artificial Intelligence Culture and Language ed B G Göransson and M Florin Springer Verlag 1990 and Dialogue and Technology Art and Knowledge ed B G Göransson and M Florin Springer Verlag 1991 The two latter books have the same conference connection as this one and their aim is to present the contours of a research field with a multitude of issues that demands thorough investigation The contributors thinking in this field varies greatly so do their styles of writing For example contributors have varied in their choice of he or she for the third person No distinction is intended but chapters have been left with the original usage to avoid extensive changes Similarly individual contributors preference as to notes or reference lists have been followed

Flexible Higher Education: Reflections From Expert Experience Burge, Elizabeth, 2007-10-01 This unique book analyzes the work of over forty pioneers who helped drive key changes in access to higher education via distance education It examines how they defined their challenges coped with traditionalist resistance developed new teaching and learning models and above all respected adult learners goals and contexts

Flexible Higher Education: Reflections from Expert Experience Elizabeth Burge, 2007-10-16 It is both uplifting and challenging It offers tales of great persistence self belief and belief in the community of learners these pioneers were seeking to engage with and influence It is a wonderful narrative which should be compulsory reading for all those aspiring to influence the shape and content of post secondary education in their own nations Widening Participation and Lifelong Learning Quite simply this is essential and inspiring reading to prepare the next generation to lead distance education American Journal of Distance Education What did forty four leading edge distance education pioneers in higher education experience and learn over their careers What concerns and research ideas could they pass on to younger colleagues to consider What do seven expert commentators find in those lessons and experience that might promote theory building and practice enhancement for post secondary education This unique book analyzes the work of over forty pioneers who helped drive key late twentieth century changes in access to and learning in higher education via distance education It examines how they defined their challenges made decisions coped with traditionalist resistance developed new teaching and learning models used various technologies felt the excitement of innovation and above all respected adult learners goals and contexts The book also assesses the relevance of that experience and skill to today's contexts Seven international leaders in adult distance and higher education assess the pioneers' reflections to glean the ideas of most relevance for contemporary teachers and administrators Flexible Higher Education provides key reading for post-secondary educators who are interested in learning and teaching design technology use quality assurance learner access and inclusion innovation in higher education and respect for reflective wisdom Commentators Michael Collins Sir John Daniel Yvonne Hillier Michael Grahame Moore David Murphy Diana G Oblinger and Barbara Spronk Conference proceedings. Comparative and Decolonial Studies in Philosophy of Education David G. Hebert, 2023-03-18 This book introduces the educational philosophies of notable African and Asian thinkers who tend to be little recognized in Europe and North America It offers specific resources for diversification of higher education curricula The book expands the philosophy of education in clear language to include ideas of major non-western educational thinkers who are little discussed in previous publications It includes critical analysis of non-western concepts and consideration of their relevance to schools worldwide The book features discussions of how the work of Tagore and postcolonial thinkers offers diverse visions that increasingly inspire a decolonizing approach to education This book offers a unique emphasis on how a decolonized philosophy of education can especially enable a rethinking of approaches to education in arts and humanities subjects Critical Theory and Transformative Learning Wang, Viktor, 2018-06-04 Engaging in genuine dialogue and authentic communication is essential for teachers to assist students' successes and help them further their education through refining critical thinking skills beyond the classroom Critical Theory and Transformative Learning is a critical scholarly resource that examines and contrasts the key concepts related to critical approaches in educational settings Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics including repressive tolerance online teaching and adult education this book is geared toward educators administrators academicians and researchers seeking current research on transformative learning and addressing the interconnectedness of important theories and praxis The Course Reflection Project Nicole Schonemann, Emily Metzgar, Andrew Libby, 2015-05-01 Service learning is entering a post initiatory phase At tertiary institutions of all types and sizes service learning programs are common and service learning requirements for graduation are growing in popularity Taken together alongside continued faculty interest in effective teaching these factors have raised the visibility and popularity of service learning Now the greater need in service learning is not to prove the need for or efficacy of service learning but to turn the focus squarely back on practice Following established best practice is not enough instructors also need to reflect on how this fits within the specific context and application of each unique course and service learning partnership While there are many excellent resources that detail best practice and showcase exemplary service learning courses faculty reflection and course revision often goes unmentioned In response to the lack of attention on the role of reflection and course revision we convened groups of faculty from a variety of disciplines to reflect deeply on their courses paying specific attention to obstacles and challenges These conversations were converted to articles for this edited collection each chapter representing the process of reflection and revision and serving as a guide to develop effective practice in varied curricular contexts This text contributes to the body of literature on service learning in a unique and practical manner Faculty teaching or interested in teaching service learning classes would benefit from this text as well as university administrators and community service directors involved in service learning at a programmatic and institutional level This book should be marketed to faculty teaching disciplinary service learning classes and service learning pedagogy classes and administrative offices involved in service learning This could be a supplementary text for graduate level pedagogy courses Higher education institutional libraries would benefit from this text as well as the national and state campus compact offices
