Sky Woman:

Skywoman Joanne Shenandoah, Douglas M. George-Kanentiio, Ka-Hon-Hes, 1998 Presents illustrated retellings of nine ancient stories of the Iroquois peoples The Great Law and the Longhouse William Nelson Fenton, 1998 The Great Law a living tradition among the conservative Iroquois is sustained by celebrating the condolence ceremony when they mourn a dead chief and install his successor for life on good behavior This ritual act reaching back to the dawn of history maintains the League of the Iroquois the legendary form of government that gave way over time to the Iroquois Confederacy Fenton verifies historical accounts from his own long experience of Iroquois society so that his political ethnography extends into the twentieth century as he considers in detail the relationship between customs and events His main argument is the remarkable continuity of Iroquois political tradition in the face of military defeat depopulation territorial loss and acculturation to European technology The Ojibwa Woman Ruth Landes, 1997-01-01 In the 1930s young anthropologist Ruth Landes crafted this startlingly intimate glimpse into the lives of Ojibwa women a richly textured ethnography widely recognized as a classic study of gender relations in a native society Sexuality and violence marital rights and responsibilities and more are thoughtfully examined Landes s pioneering work continues to inspire lively debate today Seneca myths and folk tales Arthur C. Parker, 2022-07-21 Seneca myths and folk tales by Arthur C Parker is a collection of folk tales and stories that has fascinated readers for years The tales in this collection are full of magic adventure and action that keep audiences turning pages and unable to put the book down until they ve reached the last word The Native Peoples of North America Bruce Elliott Johansen, 2006 Covering Central America the United States and Canada this book not only provides an introduction to the history of North American Indians but also offers a description of the material and intellectual ways that Native American cultures have influenced the life and institutions of people across the globe Computer Vision -- ECCV 2014 David Fleet, Tomas Pajdla, Bernt Schiele, Tinne Tuytelaars, 2014-08-14 The seven volume set comprising LNCS volumes 8689 8695 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Computer Vision ECCV 2014 held in Zurich Switzerland in September 2014 The 363 revised papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 1444 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on tracking and activity recognition recognition learning and inference structure from motion and feature matching computational photography and low level vision vision segmentation and saliency context and 3D scenes motion and 3D scene analysis and poster sessions Iroquois Richard M. Gaines, 2000-08-15 Presents a brief introduction to the Iroquois Indians including information on their society homes food clothing crafts and life today Indigenous Water and Drought Management in a Changing World Miguel Sioui, 2022-05-19 Indigenous Water and Drought Management in a Changing World presents a series of global case studies that examine how different Indigenous groups are dealing with various water management challenges and finding creative and culturally specific ways of developing solutions to these challenges With contributions from Indigenous and non Indigenous academics scientists and water management experts this volume provides an overview of key water management challenges specific to Indigenous peoples proposes possible policy solutions both at the international and national levels and outlines culturally relevant tools for assessing vulnerability and building capacity In recent decades global climate change particularly drought has brought about additional water management challenges especially in drought prone regions where increasing average temperatures and diminishing precipitation are leading to water crises Because their livelihoods are often dependent on the land and water Indigenous groups native to those regions have direct insights into the localized impacts of global environmental change and are increasingly developing their own adaptation and mitigation strategies and solutions based on local Indigenous knowledge IK Many Indigenous groups around the globe are also faced with mounting pressure from extractive industries like mining and forestry which further threaten their water resources The various cases presented in Indigenous Water and Drought Management in a Changing World provide much needed insights into the particular issues faced by Indigenous peoples in preserving their water resources as well as actionable information that can inform future scientific research and policymaking aimed at developing more integrated region specific and culturally relevant solutions to these critical challenges Includes diverse case studies from around the world Provides cutting edge perspectives about Indigenous peoples water management issues and IK based solutions Presents maps for most case studies along with a summary box to conclude each chapter

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice

Native American Literature: A Very Short Introduction Sean Teuton, 2017-12-20 North American indigenous literature began over thirty thousand years ago when indigenous people began telling stories of emergence and creation journey and quest and heroism and trickery By setting indigenous literature in historical moments Sean Teuton skillfully traces its evolution from the ancient role of bringing rain and healing the body to its later purpose in resisting European invasion and colonization into its current place as a world literature that confronts dominance while celebrating the imagination and resilience of indigenous lives By the time Europeans arrived in North America indigenous people already understood the power of written language and the need to transmit philosophy history and literature across generations and peoples Seeking out multiple literary forms such as sermon poetry and novel to serve differing worldviews indigenous authors have shaped their writing into North American indigenous literature as we recognize it today In this lucid narrative Sean Teuton leads readers into indigenous worlds He describes the invention of a written indigenous language the first indigenous language newspaper and the literary occupation of Alcatraz Island Along the way readers encounter the diversity of indigenous peoples who owing to their differing lands livelihoods and customs molded literature to a nation's specific needs As Teuton shows indigenous literature is one of the best places for understanding indigenous views about land and society and the role of humanity in the cosmos In turning to celebrated contemporary authors such as Thomas King Leslie Silko Sherman Alexie Louise Erdrich and James Welch Teuton demonstrates that like indigenous people indigenous literature continues to survive because it adapts both honoring the past and reaching for the future Creation Myths of the World David A. Leeming, 2009-12-18 The most comprehensive resource available on creation myths from around the world their narratives themes motifs similarities and differences and what they reveal about their cultures of origin ABC CLIO's breakthrough reference work on creation beliefs from around the world returns in a richly updated and expanded new edition From the Garden of Eden to the female creators of Acoma Indians to the rival creators of the Basonge tribe in the Congo Creation Myths of the World An Encyclopedia Second Edition examines how different cultures explain the origins of their existence Expanded into two volumes the new edition of Creation Myths of the World begins with introductory essays on the five basic types of creation stories analyzing their nature and significance Following are over 200 creation myths each introduced with a brief discussion of its culture of origin At the core of the new edition is its enhanced focus on creation mythology as a global human phenomenon with greatly expanded coverage of recurring motifs comparative themes the influence of geography the social impact of myths and more The Megalithic Culture of Melanesia Alphonse Riesenfeld, 1950 Caracoleando Among Worlds Silvia Soto, 2024 This book focuses on the analysis of the contemporary literary movement of Maya writers of Chiapas At the heart of this examination is a journey into the trajectory of this literary movement and its connection to the Zapatista Army of National Liberation or EZLN insurgency This work shows two movements that are rooted in shared visions of rescuing reclaiming and recentring Maya worldviews Indigenous Intergenerational Resilience Lewis Williams, 2021-11-04 This book argues that there is a need to develop greater indigenous led intergenerational resilience in order to meet the challenges posed by contemporary crises of climate change cultural clashes and adversity In today's media the climate crisis is kept largely separate and distinct from the violent cultural clashes unfolding on the grounds of religion and migration but each is similarly symptomatic of the erasure of the human connection to place and the accompanying tensions between generations and cultures This book argues that both forms of crisis are intimately related under scored and driven by the structures of white supremacy which at their most immediate and visible manifest as the discipline of black bodies and at more fundamental and far reaching proportions are about the power privilege and patterns of thinking associated with but no longer exclusive to white people In the face of such crisis it is essential to bring the experience and wisdom of Elders and traditional knowledge keepers together with the contemporary realities and vision of youth This book s inclusive and critical perspective on Indigenous led intergenerational resilience will be valuable to Indigenous and non Indigenous interdisciplinary scholars working on human ecological resilience Shelley Niro-paperback Madeline Lennon,2017-09-27 Madeline Lennon s Shelley Niro Seeing Through Memory is the first major book devoted to Niro an internationally acclaimed First Nations artist and filmmaker Published as part of the Canadian Artist Monograph Series CAMS this illustrated study of the work of an important First Nations artist in Canada includes an interview with Niro conducted by the author One Thousand One Papua New Guinean Nights: Tales form 1972-1985 Thomas H. Slone,2001 A two volume collection of folktales that were published in Papua New Guinea s Wantok newspaper The two volume collection presents the complete set of 1047 folktales that were originally published from 1972 through 1997 in Tok Pisin The River Is in Us Elizabeth Hoover,2017-11-01 Winner of the Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award 2017 Mohawk midwife Katsi Cook lives in Akwesasne an indigenous community in upstate New York that is downwind and downstream from three Superfund sites For years she witnessed elevated rates of miscarriages birth defects and cancer in her town ultimately drawing connections between environmental contamination and these maladies When she brought her findings to environmental health researchers Cook sparked the United States first large scale community based participatory research project In The River Is in Us author Elizabeth Hoover takes us deep into this remarkable community that has partnered with scientists and developed grassroots programs to fight the contamination of its lands and reclaim its health and culture Through in depth research into archives newspapers and public meetings as well as numerous interviews with community members and scientists Hoover shows the exact efforts taken by Akwesasne s massive research project and the grassroots efforts to preserve the Native culture and lands She also documents how contaminants have altered tribal life including changes to the Mohawk fishing culture and the rise of diabetes in Akwesasne Featuring community members such as farmers health care providers area leaders and environmental specialists while rigorously evaluating the efficacy of tribal efforts to preserve its culture and protect its health The River Is in Us offers important lessons for improving environmental health research and health care plus detailed insights into the struggles and methods of indigenous groups This moving uplifting book is an essential read for anyone interested in Native Americans social justice and the pollutants contaminating our food water and bodies Glocal Narratives of Resilience Ana María Fraile-Marcos,2019-12-06 Resilience discourse has recently become a global phenomenon infiltrating the natural and social sciences but has rarely been undertaken as an important object of study within the field of the humanities Understanding narrative in its broad sense as the representation in art of an event or story Glocal Narratives of Resilience investigates the contemporary approaches to resilience through the analyses of cultural narratives that engage aesthetically and ideologically in re shaping the notion of resilience going beyond the scales of the personal and the local to consider the entanglement of the regional national and global aspects embedded in the production of crises and the resulting call for resilience After an introductory survey of the state of the art in resilience thinking the book grounds its analyses of a wide range of narratives from the American continent Europe and India in various theoretical strands spanning Psycho social Resilience Socio Ecological Resilience Subaltern Resilience Indigenous survivance and resurgence Neoliberal Resilience and Compromised Resilience thinking among others thus opening the path toward the articulation of a cultural narratology of resilience
