All My Love, Louie Judy J. Cain, 2022-04-04 Judy Cain s parents survived the Great Depression and saved everything they ever had One could call them pack rats or say that they had a hoarder starter kit One day while digging through her parents belongings after they both passed away and went HOME Judy came across some very old letters All were addressed to June Larson in Minneapolis MN and were all from Louis Nelson her sweetheart and future husband During World War II Louie had written over 300 letters to June as their love was blossoming In them he expressed his love for her his calling and dream of becoming a minister and servant of the Lord his struggle with stuttering his seeming lack of faith at different points during the war and what he felt was an inability to truly pray He shielded her from the gruesomeness of the war as they fell deeper and deeper in love with each other She provided the encouragement and support for him to stay strong and true to himself This book was originally written only for her family and contained only the letters but it has grown into much more Historical contextual information photographs poems scripture verses and his Unit s history are all woven throughout the letters to help provide a context and highlight his spiritual struggle to overcome barriers to the ministry and maintain if not grow his faith during frightening and gruesome experiences of the war in Europe If a man who felt the strong calling of God could

Tides of the Sovereign Kate Gateley, 2022-03-14 A centuries old rebirth curse an otherworldly Celtic prince and an inescapable prophecy Thirty year old magic Bearer Julia Harrison had never given the notion of past lives or grand destinies any real credence or thought She has knowledge of magic and the power she shares with the women of her bloodline She is aware of the difference between Druids and Sorcerers Wielders and Bearers and so on but regardless of all of that her everyday life has always felt quite normal distinctly unmagical and never more so than as of late With the recent death of her beloved grandmother Julia finds herself severed from the only sense of place she'd ever known Grandma Gertie had all but raised her and was easily the strongest connection she'd had to her own magic and that of the natural world Without it she feels lost Disconnected Unable to rely on or even effectively access her own limited magics in her current emotional state Julia's primary focus turns to placing one foot in front of the other as she resumes a linguistics degree that has taken far longer to earn than it should have But when a visiting professor arrives on her Vancouver campus one who brings with him an odd sense of familiarity that's almost as compelling as his raw Celtic masculinity Julia knows that her life's journey is about to change heading off on an entirely new path What she could have never predicted or even dreamed of was that somehow they had walked that path together countless times before each time towards their own inescapable deaths at the hands of Marcus Cassius Longinus the indomitable Child of Rome The Arabian Nights.
