Brewer, 2019-10-02 The Bible and Modern British Drama 1930 to the Present Day is the first full length study to explore how playwrights in the modern period have adapted popular biblical stories such as Abraham and Isaac Moses and the Exodus from Egypt and the life and death of Jesus for the stage The book offers detailed and accessible interpretations of the work of well known dramatists such as Christopher Fry Howard Brenton and Steven Berkoff alongside the work of writers whose plays have been neglected in recent criticism such as James Bridie and Laurence Housman The drama is analysed within the context of changes in religious belief and practice over the course of the modern period in Britain comparing plays that approach the Bible from a traditional religious perspective with those that offer alternative viewpoints on the text including the voices of gay feminist black Jewish and Muslim dramatists In doing so the author offers a broad and in depth exploration that is grounded in current scholarship ranging from the past to present across boundaries of race and gender Ideal for students researchers and general readers interested in understanding how the Bible has served as an important source text for British playwrights in the twentieth and twenty first centuries The Bible and Modern British Drama shows how Bible based drama has been influential in creating and disseminating ideas of what constitutes a good life both on an individual and social level A Sleep of Prisoners Christopher Fry (pseud. de Christopher Harris), 1959 Sleep of Prisoners Christopher Fry, 1953 A poetical and at times biblical investigation of the problems of four prisoners of war confined in a church Auravana Lifestyle System Auravana, 2022-07-12 This publication is the Lifestyle System for a community type society A lifestyle system describes the common behavioral orientations and interests of individuals among society while identifying the cycles to which they entrain and that make up the daily motion of their lives A lifestyle is how individuals spend their time it is their pattern of living in the world as expressed by their activities interests and fundamental understandings about work and play In part a lifestyle refers to the decided timing of activities in individuals lives This standard provides a reasoned reflection on the lifestyle of individuals in a community type society. It logically derives and discursively argues for a life experience that all humanity has in common Humans participate in communities of practice we all have interests and needs we all contribute through our participation we all seek self integration and self development we are all active sometimes and inactive at other times we all discover and adapt through our experiences we all have routine patterns of behavior and we all entrain to a cycle's Herein learning is something individuals do through life experience and something which influences life experience What would your life be like in community where goods and services are coordinated to be accessible without the need for any form of exchange or coercion What is an optimal way of living in the world It is interesting to think about what a lifestyle might be like in a society oriented toward self development and contribution and not stratified by financial trade accounting or the power positioning of oneself over others The Bible & Literature Elizabeth Boyle ,Carol Dempsey,2015-05-01 Hearings United States.
