The King J. H. Donner, 2020-04-21 THE KING spans a writing career of more than thirty years during which Donner slowly developed from chess player writer into writer chess player Donner's favourite themes are Bobby Fischer the blunder chess as a game of luck why women can't play chess madness and poor Lodewijk Prins his rival for the Dutch National Championship for many years who according to Donner couldn't tell a bishop from a knight THE KING is a book full of insults and ironies but Donner wouldn't be Donner without a considerable amount of self mockery After I resigned the last game with perfect self control and solemnly shook hands with my opponent in the best of Anglo Saxon traditions I rushed home where I threw myself onto my bed howling and screaming and pulled the blankets over my face Paperback Crush
