Song Of The Heart:

The Feeling Heart in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Katie Barclay, Bronwyn Reddan, 2019-12-02 The heart is an iconic symbol in the medieval and early modern European world. In addition to being a physical organ, it is a key conceptual device related to emotions, cognition, the self, and identity and the body. The heart is read as a metaphor for human desire and will and situated in opposition to or alongside reason and cognition. In medieval and early modern Europe, the feeling heart, the heart as the site of emotion and emotional practices, informed a broad range of art, literature, music, heraldry, medical texts, and devotional and ritual practices. This multidisciplinary collection brings together art historians, literary scholars, historians, theologians, and musicologists to highlight the range of meanings attached to the symbol of the heart, the relationship between physical and metaphorical representations of the heart, and the uses of the heart in the production of identities and communities in medieval and early modern Europe.

The Heart's Wisdom: A Journey to Healing and Wholeness Pasquale De Marco, In a world where the mind is often given primacy, this book invites us to rediscover the wisdom of the heart. We are guided towards a life of meaning and purpose. This book is a practical guide to listening to the heart's wisdom. It offers exercises and meditations to help you connect with your heart and receive its guidance. You will learn how to recognize the heart's unique language. Trust your intuition. Make decisions from your heart. Heal your emotional wounds. Cultivate a heart-centered life. The heart's wisdom is available to us all. We just need to learn how to listen to it. When we do, we open ourselves up to a life of greater love, joy, and fulfillment. This book is for anyone who is ready to embark on a journey of self-discovery and transformation. It is for anyone who is ready to live a life guided by their heart. If you like this book, write a review.
