Song of the Selkies Cathie Dunsford,2012 Song of the Selkies Sarah Pennington,2023-09-17 Undercover in a foreign land a princess discovers the secrets behind a generations old enmity The youngest princess of At rse Ceana always planned to marry for the good of her people and let love come later With her sisters marriages ensuring peace with the nearby human kingdoms Ceana sets her sights on their last unallied neighbor the magical and reclusive selkies The two peoples have experienced a wary peace for generations and the time seems ripe for a deeper alliance that will benefit both kingdoms The last thing Ceana expects is for Fionntan king of the selkies to take the proposal as a grave insult With relations between the two peoples suddenly precarious Ceana is determined to set things right Aided by her grandmother she disguises herself as a selkie and travels to their hidden home of Emain Ablach where she hopes to discover the reason behind King Fionntan s reaction But the more she learns about the selkies the more she uncovers long kept secrets of her people and her heritage that shake the foundations of how she viewed the world Her growing friendships with and affection for some of the selkie nobility including King Fionntan himself further complicate matters especially as her admiration for the selkie king begins to blossom into something more No relationship built on a lie can survive but revealing her true identity as an At rsen princess will doom her efforts towards peace In order to bridge the divide between selkies and humans Ceana will have to overcome generations of selkies suspicion and reveal the insidious evil that s taken root in her homeland But the greatest obstacle to her success may be her own heart Discover a magical new world in this Little Mermaid retelling from the author of Through a Shattered Glass and the Bastian Dannel PI mysteries Song of the Selkie Jane Beal,2020-08-04 According to Celtic legend a selkie is a seal underwater and a woman on land Sometimes she emerges from the ocean shedding her white selkie coat to dance on the sand in moonlight In the liminal space of the shore she is vulnerable to capture by a man and she may become a man s wife and the mother of children In Song of the Selkie the Selkie voices her experience of being caught between two worlds one of the sea of freedom and the other of marriage and motherhood Other voices join in a Lighthouse Keeper the spirit of Ruth and even a baby Through these poems readers can enjoy the extraordinary magic of selkie stories and through their retelling gain insight into experiences of love and loss the fears and choices experienced by women and of finding hope in the future The Selkie Song H.
