Journal of the American Medical Association ,2005 Black Postcards
Dean Wareham,2009-05-05 A bewitching memoir about the lures torments and rewards of making and performing music in the indie rock world Dean Wareham s seminal bands Galaxie 500 and Luna have long been adored by a devoted cult following and extolled by rock critics Now he brings us the blunt heartbreaking and wickedly charismatic account of his personal journey through the music world the artistry and the hustle the effortless success and the high living as well as the bitter pills and self inflicted wounds It captures unsparingly what has happened to the entire ecosystem of popular music over a time of radical change when categories such as indie and alternative meant nothing to those creating the music but everything to the major labels willing to pay for it Black Postcards is a must have for Wareham s many fans anyone who has ever been in a band or the listeners who have taken an interest in the indie rock scene over the last twenty years Words and Songs of Bessie Smith, Billie Holiday, and Nina Simone Melanie E. Bratcher,2007-11-21 This book explores the relationship between three African American women s dance art music sensibilities within the context of a Pan African aesthetic Its purpose is three fold to show commonalities between Bessie Smith Billie Holiday and Nina Simone s lives and original compositions to codify examine and evaluate their selected song performances in accordance with the Pan African aesthetic Nzuri theory model and to illuminate the vast sources of transformational values that aesthetic analysis of African American song performance can foster Following concordant procedures and principles of Afrocentricity the study focuses on Smith Holiday and Simone s performances as part of a whole African artistic and cultural value system The goal of the Afrocentric methodological structure is to locate relevant African dynamics in songs and to promote knowledge for cultural transformation and continuity Its use in this study provides meta criteria for analyzing African American music which the author has used to uniquely argue connections between African cultural memory and African derived cultural expression

African American Music Mellonee V. Burnim,Portia K. Maultsby,2014-11-13 American Music An Introduction Second Edition is a collection of seventeen essays surveying major African American musical genres both sacred and secular from slavery to the present With contributions by leading scholars in the field the work brings together analyses of African American music based on ethnographic fieldwork which privileges the voices of the music makers themselves woven into a richly textured mosaic of history and culture At the same time it incorporates musical treatments that bring clarity to the structural melodic and rhythmic characteristics that both distinguish and unify African American music The second edition has been substantially revised and updated and includes new essays on African and African American musical continuities African derived instrument construction and performance practice techno and quartet traditions Musical transcriptions photographs illustrations and a new audio CD bring the music to life Songs in Black and Lavender Eileen M.

Hayes,2010-10-01 Drawing on fieldwork conducted at eight women s music festivals Eileen M Hayes shows how studying these festivals attended by predominately white lesbians provides critical insight into the role of music and lesbian community formation She argues that the women s music festival is a significant institutional site for the emergence of black feminist consciousness in the contemporary period Hayes also offers sage perspectives on black women s involvement in the women s music festival scene the ramifications of their performances as drag kings in those environments and the challenges and joys of a black lesbian retreat based on the feminist festival model With acuity and candor longtime feminist activist Hayes elucidates why this music scene matters Veteran vocalist percussionist producer and cultural historian Linda Tillery
