The Last Anglo-Jewish Gentleman Todd M.

Endelman, 2022-09-06 Redcliffe Salaman 1874-1955 was an English Jew of many facets: a country gentleman, a physician, a biologist who pioneered the breeding of blight-free strains of potatoes, a Jewish nationalist and a race scientist. A well-known figure in his own time, The Last Anglo-Jewish Gentleman restores him to his place in the history of British science and the British Jewish community. Redcliffe Salaman was also a leading figure in the Anglo-Jewish community in the 20th century. At the same time, he was also an incisive critic of the changing character of that community. His groundbreaking book The History and Social Influence of the Potato first published in 1949 and in print ever since is a classic in social history. His wife Nina was a feminist poet, essayist and translator of medieval Hebrew poetry. She was the first and to this day only woman to deliver a sermon in an Orthodox synagogue in Britain. The Last Anglo-Jewish Gentleman offers a compelling biography of a unique individual. It also provides insights into the life of English Jews during the late 19th and early 20th centuries and brings to light largely unknown controversies and tensions in Jewish life.

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration, global capitalism, nationalism, revolution and the birth of the secular self. Between 1880 and 1918, traditions and regimes collapsed around the world; migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions; nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives; utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before. Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews. This volume, seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity, political striving, social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges. Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B. Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age, from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought, from cookbooks to literary criticism, from modernist poetry to vaudeville. They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880-1918 era: an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly, aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it. This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present.

However, with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty-first century, there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century, a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement.
