Songs Of The 1950s Cello 50s Fifties Decade:

New Music of the Nordic Countries Jean Christensen, 2002 New Music of the Nordic Countries describes the music of Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden composed during the latter half of the twentieth century Along with providing biographical material on most of the living Nordic composers the book discusses in detail the major trends in Scandinavian contemporary music as well as many of the recent musical works The 800 page volume is edited by John D White a former Scholar to Iceland and a Fellow of the American Scandinavian Foundation White is the author of Part III New Music in Iceland and has enlisted five other distinguished Nordic musical scholars to write the remaining sections of the book Bound together philosophically geographically and to a significant extent ethnically the five Nordic countries hold a unique place in today s world They are populated by talented creative achievers and each nation possesses its own special qualities This is certainly true in its music yet little of Nordic tone art of the late twentieth century is widely known outside of Northern Europe Thus this comprehensive volume will serve a valuable purpose in disseminating knowledge about this important body of music literature

Nationalist and Populist Composers Steve Schwartz, 2017-12-22 Populism and nationalism in classical music held a significant place between the world wars with composers such as George Gershwin Aaron Copland and Leonard Bernstein creating a soundtrack to the lives of everyday Americans While biographies of these individual composers exist no single book has taken on this period as a direct contradiction to the modernist dichotomy between the music of Stravinsky and Schoenberg In Nationalist and Populist Composers Voices of the American People Steve Schwartz offers an overdue correction to this distortion of the American classical music tradition by showing that not all composers of this era fall into either the Stravinsky or Schoenberg camps Exploring the rise and decline of musical populism in the United States Schwartz examines the major works of George Gershwin Randall Thompson Virgil Thomson Aaron Copland Roy Harris Kurt Weill Morton Gould and Leonard Bernstein Organized chronologically chapters cover each composer s life and career and then reveal how key works participated in populist and nationalist themes Written for the both the scholar and amateur enthusiast interested in modern classical music and American social history Nationalist and Populist Composers creates a contextual frame through which all audiences can better understand such works as Rhapsody in Blue Appalachian Spring and West Side Story
