Sonnets And Metrical Tales:

Sonnets and Metrical Tales Mary Bryan, 1815 Sonnets and Metrical Tales, 1815 Mary Bryan, 2008 Metrical Tales, and Other Poems, Robert Southey, 1811 Lives of the Sonnet, 1787-1895 Marianne Van Remoortel, 2016-05-06 In a series of representative case studies Marianne Van Remoortel traces the development of the sonnet during intense moments of change and stability continuity and conflict from the early Romantic period to the end of the nineteenth century Paying particular attention to the role of the popular press which served as a venue of innovation and as a site of recruitment for aspiring authors Van Remoortel redefines the scope of the genre including the ways in which its development is intricately related to issues of gender Among her subjects are the Della Cruscans and their primary critic William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith's Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti's House of Life and Augusta Webster's Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel's study in its attentiveness to the sonnet's feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics' interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth century sonnet sequences Metrical Tales and Other Poems David Grant, 1882 Metrical Tales and Other Poems Samuel Lover, 1860 A Study of the Types of Literature Mabel Irene Rich, 1921 "The" Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature, Containing an Account of Rare, Curious, and Useful Books, Published in Or Relating to Great Britain and Ireland, from the Invention of Printing William Thomas Lowndes, 1863 The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature William Thomas Lowndes, 1889 Romanticism: Romanticism, belief, and philosophy Michael O'Neill, Mark Sandy, 2006

List of Books in the American Circulating Library of Manila American circulating library, Manila, 1907 Observations on the Utility and Administration of Purgative Medicines in Several Diseases ... Third edition, revised and enlarged James HAMILTON (Senior Physician to the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh.), 1809 The Geographical, Natural, and Civil History of Chili Giovanni Ignazio Molina, 1809 Imitations and Translations from the Ancient and Modern Classics John Cam Hobhouse Baron Broughton, George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, 1809 Sensibility and Female Poetic Tradition, 1780-1860 Claire Knowles, 2016-04-01 Arguing that the end of the eighteenth century witnessed the emergence of an important female poetic tradition Claire Knowles analyzes the poetry of several key women writing between 1780 and 1860 Knowles provides important context by demonstrating the influence of the Della Cruscans in exposing the constructed and performative nature of the trope of sensibility a revelation that was met with critical hostility by a literary culture that valorised sincerity This sets the stage for Charlotte Smith who pioneers an autobiographical approach to poetic production that places increased emphasis on the connection between the poet's physical body and her body of work Knowles shows the poets Susan Evance Letitia Elizabeth Landon and Elizabeth Barrett Browning advancing Smith's poetic strategy as they seek to elicit a powerful sympathetic response from readers by highlighting a connection between their actual suffering and the production of poetry From this environment a specific tradition in female poetry arises that is identifiable in the work of twentieth century writers like Sylvia Plath and continues to pertain today Alongside this new understanding of poetic tradition Knowles provides an innovative account of the central role of women writers to an emergent late eighteenth century mass literary culture and traces a crucial discursive shift that takes place in poetic production during this period She argues that the movement away from the passionate discourse of sensibility in the late eighteenth century to the more contained rhetoric of sentimentality in the early nineteenth had an enormous effect not only on female poets but also on British literary culture as a whole

Mary Robinson and the Genesis of

Romanticism Ashley Cross, 2016-08-19 First coming to prominence as an actress and scandalous celebrity Mary Robinson created an identity for herself as a Romantic poet and novelist in the 1790s Through a series of literary dialogues with established writers Robinson put herself at the center of Romantic literary culture as observer participant and creator Cross argues that Robinson's dialogues shaped the nature of Romantic writing both in content and form and influenced second generation Romantics These dialogues further establish the idea of Romantic discourse as essentially interactive and conversational not the work of original geniuses working in isolation and positions Robinson as a central player in its genesis
