Divided Subjects, Invisible Borders Ben Gook, 2015-09-21 What do Germany s memorials films artworks memory debates and national commemorations tell us about the lives of Germans today How did the Wall in the Head come to replace the Wall that fell in 1989 The old identities of East and West which all but dissolved in joyous embraces as the Berlin Wall fell emerged once more after formal re unification a year later in 1990 2015 marks the twenty fifth anniversary of that German re unification Yet Germany remains divided a mutual distrust lingers and national history remains contentious The material social cultural and psychic effects of re unification on the lives of eastern and western Germans since 1989 all demand again asking fundamental questions about history social change and ideology Divided Subjects Invisible Borders puts

Competing representations of the former East German state in the German cultural memory Twenty years after the fall of the Berlin Wall the consequences of the country's divided past continue to be debated The legacy of the German Democratic Republic occupies a major role in German popular culture with audiences flocking to films claiming to depict the East German state as it was Politicians from both left and right make use of its legacy to support their parties approach to unification while former citizens of the GDR are still working through their own memories of the regime and adjusting to unification Since 1989 competing representations of the East German state have emerged some underlining its repressive nature others lamenting the loss of a sense of community The twentieth anniversary of the Wende is an occasion to reflect upon both the history of the GDR and the ways in which it has been remembered and the present volume presents new research on the theme from a variety of perspectives with sections on film and literature museums and memorials and historiography and politics Contributors Thomas Ahbe Pertti Ahonen Silke Arnold de Simine Stefan Berger Laura Bradley Mary Fulbrook Nick Hodgkin Anna O Driscoll Stuart Parkes Caroline Pearce G nter Schlusche Peter Thompson Andreas Wagner Nick Hodgkin is a Cultural Historian working at the University of Sheffield UK and Caroline Pearce is Lecturer in

Turks, Jews, and Other Germans in Contemporary Art

Peter Chametzky, 2021-09-14 The first book to examine multicultural visual art in Germany discussing more than thirty contemporary artists and arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness With Turks Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art Peter Chametzky presents a view of visual culture in Germany that leaves behind the usual suspects those artists who dominate discussions of contemporary German art including Gerhard Richter Anselm Kiefer and Rosemarie Trockel and instead turns to those artists not as well known outside Germany including Maziar Moradi Hito Steyerl and Tanya Ury In this first book length examination of Germany's multicultural art scene Chametzky explores the work of more than thirty German artists who are among other ethnicities Turkish Jewish Arab Asian Iranian Sinti and Roma Balkan and Afro German With a title that echoes Peter Gay's 1978 collection of essays Freud Jews and Other Germans this book like Gay's rejects the idea of us and them in German culture Discussing artworks in a variety of media that both critique and expand notions of identity and community Chametzky offers a counternarrative to the fiction of an exclusively white Christian German culture arguing for a cosmopolitan Germanness He considers works that deploy critical confrontational and playful uses of language especially German and Turkish that assert the presence of foreign bodies among the German body politic that grapple with food as a cultural marker that engage with mass media and that depict and inhabit spaces imbued with the element of time American discussions of German contemporary art have largely ignored the emergence of non ethnic Germans as some of Germany's most important visual artists Turks Jews and Other Germans in Contemporary Art fills this gap

France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2019-01-01 Taking on the myth of France's creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art

Calle Bernard Pag s Jean Pierre Pincemin Annette Messager G rard Titus Carmel eleven major French artists of the last forty years or so examined in the light of their uniqueness and their rootedness the specificities of their differing and at times overlapping plastic practices and the swirling and often highly hybridised conceptions entertained in regard to such practices Thus does analysis range from discussion of the feisty Fluxus inspired free spirited funkiness of Ben Vautier s work to the various modes of transcendence of trauma and haunting fear generated by the exceptional gestures of Niki de Saint Phalle and Louise Bourgeois to the alyrical formalism yet imbued with irony and ludicity of Fran ois Morellet through to the serene intensities of Alexandre Hollan s vies silencieuses the infinite a signatures of Claude Viallat s adventure in the sheer joy of a poiein of self reflexive coloration the powerfully elegant and muscular disarticulations of Bernard Pag s sculpture the great sweep through art s history implied by Jean Pierre Pincemin s chameleon like gestures the vast swirling programme of socio psychological analysis the arts of Annette Messager and Sophie Calle offer in their radically distinctive manners the obsessively serialised oeuvre of G rard Titus Carmel allowing a burrowing deep into the opaque logic of a real though dubious presence to the world

Phantom Images Catherine Smale,2013 Ghosts have made an unexpected reappearance in German literature since 1989 Catherine Smale reads this as symptomatic of writers attempts to renegotiate their personal and collective identity in the wake of German reunification Focusing on two major authors from the former GDR Christa Wolf and Irina Liebmann Smale examines the ways in which their work adopts notions of haunting in its creative engagement with the double legacy of Socialism and National Socialism The ghost has long been regarded as a vehicle for making manifest taboo or unauthorized memories However Smale goes further demonstrating how the human subject is destabilized by the return of the phantom and is itself rendered insecure and spectral Drawing on a wide range of theoretical reference from the psychoanalytic concept of intergenerational phantoms to Derridean hauntology Smale s study highlights the particular challenge which Wolf and Liebmann pose to the familiar understanding of how German writers have confronted their country s troublesome past Catherine Smale is Lecturer in German at King s College London

Women and the Material Culture of Death BethFowkes Tobin,2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women's material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the dead are explored in this collection as well as women's affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life
