Whose History? Grant Rodwell, 2013 Somebody once quipped that any work of Australian historical fiction is a burning fuse travelling over decades through Australian culture and society In some manner every newly published Australian historical novel is connected to what it has preceded Each work belongs to a proud history Through multiple examples Grant Rodwell encourages readers to see how a work of historical fiction has evolved Thus under various themes WHOSE HISTORY examines the traditions in Australian historical fiction and ponders how Australian historical novels can engage teachers and student teachers WHOSE HISTORY aims to illustrate how historical novels and their related genres may be used as an engaging teacher learning strategy for student teachers in pre service teacher education courses It does not argue all teaching of History curriculum in pre service units should be based on the use of historical novels as a stimulus nor does it argue for a particular percentage of the use of historical novels in such courses It simply seeks to argue the case for this particular approach leaving the extent of the use of historical novels used in History curriculum units to the professional expertise of the lecturers responsible for the units

Our History Is the Future Nick Estes, 2023-09-26 Winner of the Oakland Blue Collar PEN Award A work of history a manifesto and an intergenerational story of resistance that shows how two centuries of Indigenous struggle created the movement proclaiming Water is Life In 2016 a small protest encampment at the Standing Rock reservation in North Dakota initially established to block construction of the Dakota Access oil pipeline grew to be the largest Indigenous protest movement in the twenty first century attracting tens of thousands of Indigenous and non Native allies from around the world Its slogan Mni Wiconi Water is Life was about more than just a pipeline Water Protectors knew this battle for Native sovereignty had already been fought many times before and that even after the encampment was gone their anti colonial struggle would continue In Our History is the Future Nick Estes traces traditions of Indigenous resistance leading to the NoDAPL movement from the days of the Missouri River trading forts through the Indian Wars the Pick Sloan dams the American Indian Movement and the campaign for Indigenous rights at the United Nations While a historian by trade Estes also draws on observations from the encampments and from growing up as a citizen of the Oceti Sakowin the Nation of the Seven Council Fires making Our History is the Future at once a work of history a personal story and a manifesto

Lethal Intersections Patricia Hill Collins, 2023-10-09 School shootings police misconduct and sexual assault where people are injured and die dominate the news What are the connections between such incidents of violence and extreme harm In this new book world renowned sociologist Patricia Hill Collins explores how violence differentially affects people according to their class sexuality nationality and ethnicity These invisible workings of overlapping power relations give rise to what she terms lethal intersections where multiple forms of oppression converge to catalyze a set of violent practices that fall more heavily on particular groups Drawing on a rich tapestry of cases Collins challenges readers to reflect on what counts as violence today and what can be done about it Resisting violence offers a common thread that weaves together disparate antiviolence projects across the world When parents of murdered children organize against gun violence when Black citizens march against the excessive use of police force in their neighborhoods and when women and girls report sexual abuse by employers coaches and community leaders the ideas and actions of ordinary people lay a foundation for new ways of thinking about and combating violence Through its ground breaking analysis Lethal Intersections aims to stimulate debate about violence as one of the most pressing social problems of our times Also available as an audiobook Lessons in Environmental Justice Michael Mascarenhas,2020-07-30 Lessons in Environmental Justice provides an entry point to the field by bringing together the works of individuals who are creating a new and vibrant wave of environmental justice scholarship methodology and activism The 18 essays in this collection explore a wide range of controversies and debates from the U S and other societies An important theme throughout the book is how vulnerable and marginalized populations the incarcerated undocumented workers rural populations racial and ethnic minorities bear a disproportionate share of environmental risks Each reading concludes with a suggested assignment that helps student explore the topic independently and deepen their understanding of the issues raised

Gestures Alice Butler,Nell Osborne,Hilary White,2025-01-28 Gestures A body of work is a cross disciplinary collection of feminist approaches to gesture that considers the term s complex registers across embodied aesthetic and political scenes Attending to gestural movements languages feelings and communications the book argues that gestures can unsettle gendered sexed and racialised relations norms and affects Contributors activate the lens of gesture to offer innovative readings of art and literary works from the 1960s onwards and in transnational contexts Experiments in art writing and autotheory reflect on the entanglement of the body gesture and feminist practice The book proposes that gesture be rethought as a mode of feminist practice that includes art writing performance and theory Mixing disciplines forms genres and voices these contributions and the book s gestural structure offer a bold intervention into the conventions of critical writing Journal of Christian Education ,2006 Terrae-filius, Or, The Secret History of the University of Oxford, 1721-1726 Nicholas Amhurst,2004-04 Although Amhurst was often dismissed by nineteenth century historians of Oxford as a bitter slanderer of his university his work stands as the single most important and reliable contemporarily published account of life in early eighteenth century Oxford The Terrae Filius essays despite their satirical bent also demonstrate that Amhurst had a deep respect for the institution and a clear vision of the intellectual ideas it should embody This modern critical edition reprints all fifty three Terrae Filius essays including the three omitted from the 1726 collected editions and provides an introduction and extensive explanatory notes that set the essays in their historical and cultural context BOOK JACKET

The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology Marie-Claire Foblets,Mark Goodale,Maria Sapignoli,Olaf

Zenker,2022-04-01 The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology is a ground breaking collection of essays that provides an original and internationally framed conception of the historical theoretical and ethnographic interconnections of law and anthropology Each of the chapters in the Handbook provides a survey of the current state of scholarly debate and an argument about the future direction of research in this dynamic and interdisciplinary field The structure of the Handbook is animated by an overarching collective narrative about how law and anthropology have and should relate to each other as intersecting domains of inquiry that address such fundamental questions as dispute resolution normative ordering social organization and legal political and social identity The need for such a comprehensive project has become even more pressing as lawyers and anthropologists work together in an ever increasing number of areas including immigration and asylum processes international justice forums cultural heritage certification and monitoring and the writing of new national constitutions among many others The Handbook takes critical stock of these various points of intersection in order to identify and conceptualize the most promising areas of innovation and sociolegal relevance as well as to acknowledge the points of tension open questions and areas for future development

Panic Now? Ira Allen,2024-06-11 When was the best time to panic about the varying crises facing humanity Twenty years ago But the next best time Now In line with other considerations of what we have come to call the Anthropocene in Panic Now Tools for Humanizing Ira J Allen takes the reader on a journey through difficult feelings about the various crises facing humanity and from there to new ways of facing impending dread with a sense of empowerment The interrelated threats of climate collapse an artificial intelligence revolution a sixth mass extinction a novel chemical crisis and more are all brought to us by what Allen describes as CaCaCo the carbon capitalism colonialism assemblage After suggesting that it is absolutely time to panic he asks how do we manage to panic productively Admitting there is no one script for everyone to follow the author traces how we might adopt attitudes and practices that allow us to move through this liminal space between fear and action collectively This book is a master class in how to create better more humanizing outcomes by confronting the panic that goes along with the realization that the world as we know it is ending Rather than remaining mentally emotionally imaginatively and practically stuck in this historical condition Allen invites us to a very particular action oriented mode of panic which can indeed incite our imaginations to move from panic to empowerment
