Lootens,2019-12-03 The Political Poetess challenges familiar accounts of the figure of the nineteenth century Poetess offering new readings of Poetess performance and criticism In performing the Poetry of Woman the mythic Poetess has long staked her claims as a creature of separate spheres one exempt from emerging readings of nineteenth century women s political poetics Turning such assumptions on their heads Tricia Lootens models a nineteenth century domestic or private sphere whose imaginary apolitical heart is also the heart of nation and empire and as revisionist histories increasingly attest is traumatized and haunted by histories of slavery Setting aside late Victorian attempts to forget the unfulfilled sentimental promises of early antislavery victories The Political Poetess restores Poetess performances like Julia Ward Howe's Battle Hymn of the Republic and Emma Lazarus's The New Colossus to view and with them the vitality of the Black Poetess within African American public life Crossing boundaries of nation period and discipline to connect the dots of Poetess performance Lootens demonstrates how new histories and ways of reading position poetic texts by Felicia Dorothea Hemans Elizabeth Barrett Browning Dinah Mulock Craik George Eliot and Frances E W Harper as convergence points for larger engagements ranging from Germaine de Staël to G W F Hegel Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bishop Alice Walker and beyond Perrine's Sound and Sense 12e Im Arp, Steve Johnson, 2007-05 The Instructor's Manual contains comments on each and every poem in Sound and Sense by either Larry Perrine Greg Johnson or Tom Arp or some instances all three authors This useful resource also includes answers to the Exercises in Sound featured throughout the book as well as additional information that help answers one or more of the Questions for an individual poem Finally the Instructor Manual also includes references to additional poems in the Poems For Further Reading section of the book that treat the topic of the chapter Instructor's Manual for Sound and Sense Laurence Perrine, 1969 Instructor's Manual for Sound and Sense Laurence Perrine, Harcourt, Brace & World, 1969 Instructor's Manual to Accompany Sound and Sense Laurence Perrine, Thomas R. Arp, 1969 Handbook of Poetic Forms Jessica Bundschuh, Irmtraud Huber, 2025-10-06 This Handbook of Poetic Forms aims to offer historically informed approaches to a wide variety of poetic forms A particular emphasis will be on considering poetic form in dialogue with the cultural context in which it is being used as well as within the literary tradition of each form and to explore the stable as well as the historically variable affordances of each form in such contexts Hereby the focus lies on prescriptive forms that is on poetic forms which are defined by or at least associated with specific metrical stanzaic or overall structures or the absence of such rather than poetic genres that are primarily characterised by similarities in subject matter like the elegy or the ode While this Handbook should be accessible to students its aim is not to offer basic introductions but rather to broaden a historical and functional understanding of the poetic forms it covers and to engage with poetic forms not as givens but as historically contingent processes of formation Above all this Handbook's formalism is new formalist in emphasising historical awareness and contextualisation The Sound Sense of Poetry Peter Robinson, 2018-09-13 What real role can poetry have in the world How are its truths created by the words and sounds chosen by the poet and by the way readers respond to them Acclaimed poet Peter Robinson brings his knowledge of poetic art to the understanding of the reader's contribution in enabling poetry to play its part in life Emphasising the value of individual writers and readers interactions together with such key matters as meter and rhythm voicing and form rhyme and syntax Robinson shows how poems engage in speech performances such as promising justifying excusing and explaining including the telling of truths

Illustrated with detailed readings of poems by among others Jonson Marvell Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Tennyson Christina Rossetti Dickinson Kipling Basil Bunting Frank O'Hara Tony Harrison and Denise Riley this book shows how important poetry is as a means to do things with words and make things happen      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978      Sound and Sense in British Romanticism James Grande,Carmel Raz,2023-09-07 A captivating exploration of the newly reimagined world of sound and sense in Britain in the decades around 1800
