Sweet Sorrow Denise Robins, 1940      Grieving Hearts in Worship Rev. Dr. Michael E. Landon, 2012-05-25 Grieving Hearts in Worship offers an in depth opportunity to answer challenging questions concerning a growing disconnect between how we grieve and how we worship God Through the use of stories poetry creative worship services and thought provoking discussions Landon shares his unique understanding of the nature of our need for rituals in worship as a beneficial part of our journey towards healing By exploring major thoughts and writings on grief he identifies common threads weaving together a living tapestry that expresses the depth of personal and communal experiences of grief Reading this contemplative approach to discussing grief and its place in worship will open your eyes to a new way of seeing Gods love for the grieving The books practical suggestions offer church leaders and members a blend of topics worship services and reflection questions that include Attitudes About Death and Grief Annual Remembrance Services Finding Hope in Brokenness Anger and Vulnerability in Worship Rediscovering Joy Walking the Labyrinth When A Church Dies      The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock, 2022-01-01 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock s innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment      Treecat Wars David Weber, Jane M. Greek Rebetiko from a Psychocultural Perspective Same Songs Changing Minds examines the ways in which audiences in present day Greece and Turkey perceive and use the Greek popular song genre rebetiko to cultivate specific cultural habits and identities In the past rebetiko has been associated chiefly with the lower strata of Greek society But Daniel Koglin approaches the subject from a different perspective exploring the mythological and ritual aspects of rebetiko which intellectual elites on both sides of the Aegean Sea have adapted to their own world views in our age of globalized consumption Combining qualitative and quantitative methods from ethnomusicology ritual studies conceptual history and music psychology Koglin casts light on the role played by national perceptions in the processes of music production and consumption His analysis reveals that rebetiko persistently oscillates between conceptual categories it is a music both ours and theirs marginal and mainstream joyful and grievous sacred and profane The study culminates in the thesis that this semantic multistability is not only a key concept to understanding the ongoing popularity of rebetiko in Greece and its recent renaissance in Turkey but also a fundamental aspect of the human experience on the south eastern borders of Europe
