P. Singh,2017-01-11 Developed nations strive to create the impression that their hearts and pockets bleed for the developing world Yet the global North continues to offer unfavorable trade terms to the global South Truly fair trade would make reciprocal concessions to developing countries while allowing them to better their own positions However five hundred years of colonial racism and post colonial paternalism have undermined trade negotiations While urging developing countries to participate in trade the North offers empty deals to partners that it regards as unequal Using a mixed methods approach J P Singh exposes the actual position beneath the North s image of benevolence and empathy either join in the type of trade that developed countries offer or be cast aside as obstreperous and unwilling Singh reveals how the global North ultimately bars developing nations from flourishing His findings chart a path forward showing that developing nations can garner favorable concessions by drawing on unique strengths and through collective advocacy Sweet Talk offers a provocative rethinking of how far our international relations have come and how far we still have to go Sweet Talk Susan Mallery,2008-07-01 Don t ask Claire Keyes The twenty eight year old piano prodigy has never had a regular boyfriend much less a real romance Her music career has left little room for friends or family which is just part of the reason she hasn't seen the family bakery or her two sisters in years But now Nicole is sick and Jesse is AWOL Despite the fact that Claire can't boil water she's determined to play caretaker Connecting with her sisters tops her to do list along with falling in love or at least in lust for the first time Ruggedly sexy Wyatt just might fit the bill Although he keeps saying that he and Claire come from entirely different worlds he lights up hotter than a bakery oven whenever Claire is near If this keeps up she just might sweet talk him into her bed and her life
