Verona The Taming of the Shrew Romeo and Juliet Lucrece and Twelfth Night it reinvestigates a selection of moments in Shakespeare's works that have been widely identified in previous criticism as Ovidian scrutinising their literary alchemy with an eye to uncovering how ostensibly classical references may be haunted by the under acknowledged spectral presences of medieval intertexts and traditions Its central concern is the mutual hauntings of Ovid Geoffrey Chaucer and John Gower in the early modern literary imagination it demonstrates that Ovidian allusions to mythological figures such as Ariadne Philomela or Narcissus in Shakespeare's dramatic and poetic works were sometimes simultaneously mediated by the hermeneutic and affective legacies of earlier vernacular texts including The Legend of Good Women Troilus and Criseyde and the Confessio Amantis LINDSAY ANN REID is a Lecturer in English at the National University of Ireland Galway
