Mi'kmaq and Maliseet cultural ancestral material Stephen Joseph Augustine, 2005-01-01 Drawing on artifacts held in the collections of the Canadian Museum of History this book provides a fascinating look at the richness of Mi kmaq and Maliseet cultural practice technological ingenuity and artistic expression Designed as a finding aid this book will undoubtedly become a helpful resource for Aboriginal Peoples scholars teachers and the general public Objects such as baskets canoes clothing moccasins and tools are illustrated with full colour photographs and are accompanied by a brief text describing the object and its provenance The result is a comprehensive reference tool for researchers and educators alike Published in English A Measure of the Earth Nicholas R. Bell, 2013-10-01 A Measure of the Earth provides an unparalleled window into an overlooked corner of recent American history the traditional basketry revival of the past fifty years Steve Cole and Martha Ware amassed a remarkable collection using the most stringent guidelines baskets made from undyed domestic materials that have been harvested by the maker An essay by Nicholas Bell details the long standing use of traditional fibers such as black ash and white oak willow and sweetgrass and the perseverance of a select few to claim these elements the land itself for the enrichment of daily life As they trek through woods fields farm and shore in the quest for the right ingredients for a basket these men and women cultivate an enviable knowledge of the land Each basket crafted from this knowledge provides not only evidence of this connection to place but also a measure of the earth Drawing on conversations with the basketmakers from across the country and reproducing many of their documentary photographs Bell offers an intimate glimpse of their lifeways motivations and hopes Lavish illustrations of every basket convey the humble tactile beauty of these
