Rohinton Mistry Peter Morey, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The award winning novelist Rohinton Mistry is recognised as one of the most important contemporary writers of postcolonial literature This study the first of its kind will provide scholars and students with an insight into the key features of Mistry s work Peter Morey suggests how the author s writing can be read in terms of recent Indian political history his native Zoroastrian culture and ethos conventions of oral storytelling common to Persia and South Asia and the experience of migration which now sees him living in Canada The texts are viewed through the lens of diaspora and minority discourse theories to show how Mistry s writing is illustrative of marginal positions in relation to sanctioned national identities Swimming Lessons Rohinton Mistry, 2018-08-08 Firozsha Baag is an apartment building in Bombay Its ceilings need plastering and some of the toilets leak appallingly but its residents are far from desperate though sometimes contentious and unforgiving In these witty poignant stories Mistry charts the intersecting lives of Firozsha Baag yielding a delightful collective portrait of a middle class Indian community poised between the old ways and the new A fine collection the volume is informed by a tone of gentle compassion for seemingly insignificant lives Michiko Kakutani New York Times A Study Guide for rohinton Mistry's "Swimming Lessons" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for rohinton Mistry s Swimming Lessons excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Aysha Iqbal Viswamohan, 2013-04-15 Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Politics of Global Reception and Awards is a critical handbook that focuses on trends in contemporary Indian novels and discusses the global reception of these works The volume provides a systematic approach to the study of Indian novelists that have not been with certain exceptions extensively examined The Fiction of South Asians in North America and the Caribbean Mitali P. Wong, Zia Hasan, 2010-06-28 This study establishes connections between the themes and methodologies of writers within the South Asian diaspora in the New World and serves both serious analysts as well as beginning readers of South Asian fiction It is an impartial study that analyzes the stylistic excellence of South Asian fiction and the clearly emergent motifs of the writers recognizing the value of the interplay of cultural differences and the need for resolution of those differences The book begins with a discussion of the works of Indo Caribbean novelists Samuel Selvon and V S Naipaul author of A House for Mr Biswas and The Enigma of Arrival thereby establishing parallels between the immigration patterns of the South Asian diaspora who first emigrated to the Caribbean long before significant numbers of South Asians came to the United States Next the fiction of Ruth Praver Jhabvala Heat and Dust the non fictional narratives of Ved Mehta Face to Face and the satire and social criticism of Bharati Mukherjee Wife and Child and Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Sister of My Heart are discussed New literary voices such as those of Bapsi Sidhwa An American Brat Pulitzer Prize winner Jhumpa Lahiri whose characters plots and themes deal with universal human experiences Akhil Sharma Manil Suri and Samrat Upadhyay are studied for the new directions and new methods they offer A sub genre of young adult fiction is discovered in the novels of Dhan Gopal Mukerji such as in his Gay Neck The Story of a Pigeon and more recently in the works of Mitali Perkins and Indi Rana Recent expatriate novelists from South Asia such as Anita Desai Amitav Chosh Vikram Chandra and the American editions of Vikram Seth s novels are appraised together with contemporary Indo Canadian novelists and Indo Caribbean novelists resident in Canada Ethnic Angst Dr. Ajay Sahebrao Deshmukh, 2014-12-15 This book is one of the rare books that delves into the psyche of the Parsi community their culture and anxieties The book takes into consideration all these aspects reflected in the fiction of Bapsi Sidhwa and Rohinton Mistry Meticulous style deep critical insights into the literary critical cultural as well diasporic religious political and minority aspects are the hallmarks of this book The book is a superb model of comparative study This is must have for the students of language literature criticism

1,000 Books to Read Before You Die James Mustich, 2017-03-28 The ultimate literary bucket list The Washington Post If there s a heaven just for readers this is it O The Oprah Magazine Celebrate the pleasure of reading and the thrill of discovering new titles in an extraordinary book that s as compulsively readable entertaining surprising and enlightening as the 1 000 plus titles it recommends Covering fiction poetry science and science fiction memoir travel writing biography children s books history and more 1 000 Books to Read Before You Die ranges across cultures and through time to offer an eclectic collection of works that each deserve to come with the recommendation You have to read this But it s not a proscriptive list of the great works rather it s a celebration of the glorious mosaic that is our literary heritage Flip it open to any page and be transfixed by a fresh take on a very favorite book Or come across a title you always meant to read and never got around to Or like browsing in the best kind of bookshop stumble on a completely unknown author and work and feel that tingle of discovery There are classics of course and unexpected treasures too Lists to help pick and choose like Offbeat Escapes or A Long Climb but What a View And its alphabetical arrangement by author assures that surprises await on almost every turn of the page with Cormac McCarthy and The Road next to Robert McCloskey and Make Way for Ducklings Alice Walker next to Izaac Walton There are nuts and bolts too best editions to read other books by the author if you like this you ll like that recommendations and an interesting endnote of adaptations where appropriate Add it all up and in fact there are more than six thousand titles by nearly four thousand authors mentioned a life changing list for a lifetime of reading 948 pages later you still want more THE WASHINGTON POST

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

A Matter of Taste Nilanjana S. Roy, 2004 A delectable collection of writing on food and its place in our lives that brings together some of the most significant Indian voices over the last century From lavish meals modern diets and cooking lessons that serve as a rite of passage to fake fasts and real ones fish feni and fiery meals that smack of revenge this book has something to satisfy every palate Gandhi's guilt ridden account of his failed flirtation with eating meat starkly complements Ruchir Joshi's toast to the senses as he describes his characters discovering a truly alternative use for some perfectly innocent shrikhand In unique gastronomic takes on history Salman Rushdie Amitav Ghosh and Saadat Hasan Manto ensure that we will never look at chutney a Tibetan momo or jelly in quite the same way again

Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story's confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story
