Symbolic Wounds Puberty Rites The Envi:

Symbolic Wounds Bruno Bettelheim, 1954 Gender and Envy Nancy Burke, 2014-02-04 The first volume of its kind this edited collection brings together classic texts in the history of psychoanalysis and developing theory to examine gender and envy Bringing to light the ways in which our preoccupation with the Freudian concept of penis envy has both revealed and obscured fundamental psychological insights the essays also form bridges across many disciplines and schools of psychological thought From foundational works by Freud Klein and Horney to the current scholarship of Fast Torok and Friedman Gender and Envy brings together a library of critical thinking on the ongoing discussion of envy gender and psychoanalysis The Gift of Sublimation Nathan Carlin, Donald Capps, 2015-06-23 There is not and never was a monolithic masculinity there are and always have been multiple masculinities Today diversity with regard to gender and sexuality is beginning to be recognized and celebrated even while many religious denominations still resist these cultural changes This book offers pastoral interpretations of these social shifts in light of psychological principles applying them to topics such as the moral disapproval of masturbation the efforts of some churches to convince homosexual men to adopt a heterosexual orientation the dynamics of male envy of female longevity the homosexual tendencies of King James of England and Scotland and biblical portraits of God's body gender and sexuality The authors make a special use of the psychoanalytic concept of sublimation that is the redirection of sexual desires that are considered unacceptable or unworthy toward interests and aspirations that are considered acceptable and worthy While the use of psychoanalytic hermeneutics here is likely to raise various red flags for potential religious readers especially for those who have been informed that Sigmund Freud was hostile toward religion this book presents a rather different Freud by focusing on religious sublimation Jealousy and Envy Léon Wurmser, Heidrun Jarass, 2011-02-25 Jealousy and envy permeate the practice of psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic work New experience and new relevance of old but neglected ideas about these two feeling states and their origins warrant special attention both as to theory and practice Their great complexity and multilayered nature are highlighted by a number of contributions the very early inception of the triangular jealousy situations the prominence of womb envy and hatred against femininity rooted in the envy of female procreativity the role of shame and the core of both affects the massive effects of the embodiment of these feelings in the conscience i.e. the envious and resentful attacks by the inner judge against the self the attempt to construct a cultic system of sacrifices the would countermand womb envy by an all male cast of killing rebirth redemption and blissful nourishment and finally the projection of envy jealousy and their context of shame and self condemnation in the form of the Evil Eye Taken together the contributions to the stunning and insightful volume form a broad spectrum of new insights into the dynamics of two central emotions of rivalry and their clinical and cultural relevance and application Symbolic Wounds Bruno Bettelheim, 1962 Bettelheim presents an account of his examination of initiation rites in present day pre literate societies and suggests that circumcision and related rituals may be the expression of male fascination with and jealousy of female sex apparatus and function Broadly evaluating prevailing notions regarding puberty rites Bettelheim describes ceremonies among different tribes such as ritual subincision among the Arunta transvestism among the African Changa and many other customs and also relates many myths that accompany the rituals

Personal Disorder and Family Life Peter Lomas, 2017-07-12 This work looks into how why and when people pursue things in life that they desire those that make their existence attractive and worth living Robert A Stebbins calls this Positive Sociology the study of what people do to organize their lives such that they become substantially rewarding satisfying and fulfilling Western society has many challenges crime drug addiction urban pollution daily stress domestic violence and overpopulation Significant levels of success in avoiding these problems brings a noticeable measure of tranquility but it does not necessarily generate a positive life Personal Decisions in the Public Square draws upon in large part the sociology of leisure a happy science Among the basic concepts in the sociology of leisure are activity and human agency The centrality of positive activity is one of its hallmarks and separates it from other social science specialties Stebbins's positive sociology centers on conceptual roots found in the serious leisure perspective This theoretical framework synthesizes three main forms of leisure serious casual and project based while showing their distinctive features similarities and interrelationships Positive sociology also considers two other domains of life work and non work obligations This new approach focuses on the pursuit of that which makes life worth living Stebbins explores goals that are important to all people such as negotiating the right work family or obligation leisure balance and the tricky relationship between money and happiness Research scientists or the general public may find the ideas presented in this volume help them better understand and negotiate situations by showing how to approach them in a positive way rather than as problems that need to be solved Delivered from the Elements of the World Peter J. Leithart, 2016-03-30 In this wide ranging study bursting with insights Peter Leithart explores how and why Jesus death and resurrection addresses the deepest realities of this world This biblical and theological examination of atonement and justification challenges conventional perceptions and probes the depths of the death that changes everything

Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer, 2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women's cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women's film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book offers fresh interpretations of individual works and can incidentally serve as an introduction to the field of feminist film criticism Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Dictionary of the Social Sciences Craig Calhoun, 2002-05-02 Featuring over 1 800 concise definitions of key terms the Dictionary of the Social Sciences is the most comprehensive authoritative single volume work of its kind With coverage on the vocabularies of anthropology sociology political science economics human geography cultural studies and Marxism the Dictionary is an integrated easy to use A to Z reference tool Designed for students and non specialists it examines classic and contemporary scholarship including basic terms concepts theories schools of thought methodologies issues and controversies As a true dictionary it also contains concise jargon free definitions that explain the rich sometimes complex language of these increasingly visible fields

Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 1987-04-15 This is a book by women about women in the religions of the world It presents all the basic facts and ideological issues concerning the position of women in the major religious traditions of humanity Buddhism Christianity

Confucianism Hinduism Islam Judaism Taoism and tribal religions A special feature of the book is its phenomenological approach wherein scholars examine sacred textual materials Each contributor not only studies her religion from within but also studies it from her own feminine perspective Each is an adept historian of religions who grounds her analysis in publicly verifiable facts The book strikes a delicate balance between hard fact and delicate perception the best tradition of phenomenology and the history of religions It also demonstrates how much religions may vary over time Contributors are Katherine K Young Associate Professor of Religious Studies at McGill University Nancy Schuster Barnes whose Ph D is in Sanskrit and Indian Studies M Theresa Kelleher Assistant Professor of Religion and Asian Studies at Manhattanville College Barbara Reed Assistant Professor of Religion at St Olaf College Denise L Carmody Professor and Chair Department of Religion The University of Tulsa Also Jane I Smith Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Lecturer in Islamic Studies at Harvard Divinity School Rosemary Radford Ruether Georgia Harkness Professor of Applied Theology at the Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Rita M Gross Associate Professor of Comparative Religions at the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire The Domestication of Women Barbara Rogers,2005-08-05 First Published in 1981 The Domestication of Women is a feminist critique of international development agencies and programs Wrestling With the Ox Paul O.

Ingram,2006-05-01 A Christian scholar of Buddhism Paul Ingram here develops a primordial theology that deals with the key religious issues of our times including religious ways of knowing the character of the Sacred our relation with nature and the various forms of liberation of the self of others and the final liberation from death with which all religious Ways must deal

Body/Politics Mary Jacobus,Evelyn Fox Keller,Sally Shuttleworth,2013-02-01 Body Politics demonstrates how many of the controversies in modern science involve or invoke the feminine body as their battleground This groundbreaking collection addresses such scientific issues as artificial fertilization the crisis in childbirth management and the medical invention of female maladies and the debates surrounding them In the process it makes an important attempt to remedy the traditional division between science and non science by focusing on the interconnection of literary social and scientific discourses concerning the female body The editors have brought together noted feminist scholars and critics from various fields Contributors include Susan Bordo Mary Ann Doane Donna Haraway Emily Martin Mary Poovey and Paula A Treichler

States Without Nations Jacqueline Stevens,2009 As citizens we hold certain truths to be self evident that the rights to own land marry inherit property and especially to assume birthright citizenship should be guaranteed by the state The laws promoting these rights appear not only to preserve our liberty but to guarantee society remains just Yet considering how much violence and inequality results from these legal mandates Jacqueline Stevens asks whether we might be making the wrong assumptions Would a world without such laws be more just Arguing that the core laws of the nation state are more about a fear of death than a desire for freedom Jacqueline Stevens imagines a world in which birthright citizenship family inheritance state sanctioned marriage and private land ownership are eliminated Would chaos be the result Drawing on political theory and history and incorporating contemporary social and economic data she brilliantly critiques our sentimental attachments to birthright citizenship inheritance and marriage and highlights their harmful outcomes including war global apartheid destitution family misery and environmental damage It might be hard to imagine countries without the rules of membership and ownership that have come to define them but as Stevens shows conjuring new ways of reconciling our laws with the condition of mortality reveals the flaws of our present institutions and inspires hope for moving beyond them

From Generation to Generation Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, Psycho-Sexual David Greven, 2013-01-02 Bridging landmark territory in film studies Psycho Sexual is the first book to apply Alfred Hitchcock's legacy to three key directors of 1970s Hollywood Brian De Palma Martin Scorsese and William Friedkin whose work suggests the pornographic male gaze that emerged in Hitchcock's depiction of the voyeuristic homoerotically inclined American man Combining queer theory with a psychoanalytic perspective David Greven begins with a reconsideration of Psycho and the 1956 remake of The Man Who Knew Too Much to introduce the filmmaker's evolutionary development of American masculinity Psycho Sexual probes De Palma's early Vietnam War draft dodger comedies as well as his film Dressed to Kill along with Scorsese's Taxi Driver and Friedkin's Cruising as reactions to and inventive elaborations upon Hitchcock's gendered themes and aesthetic approaches Greven demonstrates how the significant political achievement of these films arises from a deeply disturbing violent even sorrowful psychological and social context Engaging with contemporary theories of pornography while establishing pornography's emergence during the classical Hollywood era Greven argues that New Hollywood filmmakers seized upon Hitchcock's radical decentering of heterosexual male dominance The resulting images of heterosexual male ambivalence allowed for an investment in same sex desire an aura of homophobia became informed by a fascination with the homoerotic Psycho Sexual also explores the broader gender crisis and disorganization that permeated the Cold War and New Hollywood eras reimagining the defining premises of Hitchcock criticism

Global Perspectives on Gender and Work Jacqueline Goodman, 2000-04-16 Central to all our lives work affects our status in the state the family and the economy This comprehensive reader examines the myriad ways in which work whether it is well paid unpaid or underpaid profoundly influences our roles in both the public and private spheres Jacqueline Goodman has selected a key set of essays that examine influential arguments on such central themes as 1 the origins of the gendered division of labor 2 historical trends and economic transformations that affect and are affected by women's position in market and non market work 3 the effects of occupational and job segregation by sex on status pay and promotion 4 the ways in which formal and informal organizational culture shape and in turn are shaped by gender in professional and managerial positions 5 class consciousness among wage earning men and women 6 the different forms of gender discrimination that women and men face in the workplace 7 the problems working parents face and the ways in which different societies subcultures and genders cope and 8 alternative approaches to improving the lives of working women and their families in the global economy With its rich interdisciplinary perspective this text is ideal for courses in sociology political science anthropology and women s and gender studies
