The Identity of Anglican Worship Kenneth W. Stevenson, Bryan D. Spinks, 1991 Does Anglican worship have an identity This rich collection of essays demonstrates a great diversity of conviction styles and perception of issues from when children should be confirmed through the status and future of the Eucharist to the inculturation of liturgy within modern societies From this rich tapestry emerges a common thread of deeply held identity that offers insight into the role of Anglicanism in today's and tomorrow's world

Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers Paul F. Bradshaw, 2017-01-13 A companion to Prayers of the Eucharist Early and Reformed The Churches of the East possess a sometimes bewildering array of Eucharistic prayers Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayer offers a guide to the exploration of the principal prayers and presents in a simple and succinct manner the current scholarship on the origins development and relationship of these particular prayers to other ancient prayers As well as summarizing the state of research and suggesting directions for future study these essays explain the history of these prayers their relationship to one another and reveal how and why early Christian prayers developed as they did In this way Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers produces a clear picture of the way early Eucharistic prayers emerged and grew in the Eastern Churches Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers serves as a companion to and provides an extended commentary on the texts of early eastern Eucharistic prayers that are published in R C D Jasper and G J Cuming's Prayers of the Eucharist Early and Reformed Essays on Early Eastern Eucharistic Prayers also offers more detail than is available in the introductions to either text or in other general histories of liturgy or early liturgical practice Articles and their contributors include Introduction The Evolution of Early Anaphoras by Paul F Bradshaw The Anaphora of the Apostles Addai and Mari by Stephen B Wilson The Strasbourg Papyrus by Walter D Ray The Anaphora of St Mark A Study in Development by G J Cuming The Archaic Nature of the Sanctus Institution Narrative and Epiclesis of the Logos in the Anaphora Ascribed to Sarapion of Thmuis by Maxwell E Johnson The Basilian Anaphoras by D Richard Stuckwisch The Anaphora of the Mystagogical Catecheses of Cyril of Jerusalem by Kent J Burreson The Anaphora of St James by John D Witvliet The Anaphora of the Eighth Book of the Apostolic Constitutions by Raphael Graves and St John Chrysostom and the Byzantine Anaphora That Bears His Name by Robert F Taft S J Includes an index Paul F Bradshaw is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and was vice principal of Ripon College Cuddesdon Oxford England He is the author of Liturgy in Dialogue and Early Christian Worship published by The Liturgical Press

Reading the Liturgy Juliette J. Day, 2014-03-13 This is a unique contribution to discussions within churches about the provision of suitable words for liturgical worship and to debates among scholars about liturgical hermeneutics as well as offering a new methodological paradigm for liturgical studies to inspire students and researchers By combining insights from literary and linguistic studies with those from historical and contemporary liturgical studies Juliette Day investigates the nature of a text in relation to unscripted speech how authors and worshipers make use of genre narrative and other texts how the textuality of the liturgy as well as its ritual context affect the sort of language used in worship and what implicit meanings are conveyed in the way liturgical texts are printed in books Day discusses the history of liturgical texts and their function as well as liturgical genres and narratives She examines the function of language in liturgical worship and emphasizes its meaning for readers worshipers and speakers Day applies insights from literary and linguistic studies to liturgical texts in a comprehensive fashion making it accessible to a broad readership The Eucharistic Prayer at Sunday Mass Richard E. McCarron, 2008-04-28 Down in the valley God asked the prophet Ezekiel a mighty question Mortal can these dry bones live Ezekiel 37 3 Today this question is being posed once more to those who are charged with the preparation and celebration of the Sunday liturgy the assembly that celebrates the ministers from within that assembly who prepare and serve and those ordained as priests or bishops who preside We have come a long way since the early days of the conciliar reform of the liturgy Assemblies respond and sing the word is proclaimed with dignity and reverence careful attention is given to environment and season and all come to the communion table Many assemblies strive to realize fully week after week the vision of the Council that the eucharistic liturgy be seen heard felt and smelt as the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed the source from which all its power flows This is critical work if we are utterly convinced that the preeminent manifestation of the church is present in the full active participation of all God's holy people in these liturgical celebrations But many still know liturgical assemblies that are but shadows of who they are called to be and celebrations are slivers of what they could be Many stand at the brink of the valley and behold dry bones And when we come to the eucharistic prayer named the central prayer of the Sunday liturgy we behold very dry bones indeed The question is put forth Can these dry bones live We have come to realize that liturgy is something people do something people live The eucharistic prayer is more than its words It is a way of praying and living What lies in the ritual book must be enfleshed when we gather We come together and breathe life into our rituals and their words We can do this because we have first been sealed in the Spirit the one who aids us in our weakness to pray that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words Romans 8 26 from Chapter 1 The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kieran McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies Praying in Time Vassa Larin, 2023-03-06 It has been said that a major problem of our twenty four seven internet age is that people increasingly lack purpose and meaning in their lives And the most influential people of our day the tech geniuses and self help gurus seem convinced that we are the ones who are to create this purpose or meaning for ourselves just as we invent new technologies and self help programs In this context Sister Vassa Larin invites the Christian reader to rediscover a handy instrument from the toolbox of ancient Christian tradition which can fill our every hour and every day with faith based meaning and purpose the practice of praying and commemorating every weekday and every time of day according to the traditioned liturgical meaning of each day and hour Combining engaging theological explanations with practical prayer tips Sister Vassa offers a simple and flexible way of living this prayer tradition so it is sustainable even amidst a busy schedule Maternal Body Frost, Carrie Frederick, 2019 Places Orthodox sources icons hymns and prayers on motherhood into conversation with each other In so doing this work brings an anchored vision of motherhood to the twenty first century especially the embodied experience of motherhood Worship in the Early Church: Volume 3 Lawrence J. Ross, Mark A. Lamport, 2022-04-12 This volume brings together an ecumenical team of scholars to offer a historical overview of how worship developed The book first orients readers to the common core elements the global church shares in the history and development of worship theology and historical practice It then introduces the major streams of worship practice Catholic Orthodox and Protestant including Reformation traditions evangelicalism and Pentecostalism The book includes introductions by John Witvliet and Nicholas Wolterstorff A previous volume addressed the theological foundations of worship La Vida Sacra James Empereur, Eduardo C. Fernández (s.j.), 2006-10-12 Presents an insightful approach to the sacraments from the perspective and actual practice of Latinos over the centuries This work offers a distinctive take on the belief and enculturation of the sacraments in the Latino experience and context It is suitable for theology courses as well as directors of ministerial programs and their students Sacramental Orders Susan K. Wood, 2000 Ordained ministry cannot be understood by itself or only in its relationship with Christ It must find its identity in relationship to the Church for it exists to serve and build up the Church In Sacramental Orders Susan Wood places the theology of ordained ministry within its ecclesial foundations identifying four concepts that shed light on different aspects of ordained ministry and its relationship to the Church a monarchical and hierarchical concept a eucharistic collegial model of ministry representing the communion of particular Churches the priest prophet and king which structures the concept of the Church as the people of God and a theology of the Church as a sacrament of Christ and ordained ministry as a sacrament of the Church Sacramental Orders is a liturgical and theological study of ordained ministry grounded in the liturgy of the 1990 typical edition of the rites It addresses the three Orders within the one Sacrament of Order bishop presbyter and deacon By including each order with this study the interrelationship between the three becomes more apparent and the theology of one is allowed to inform the theology of the others Wood points out that one of the challenges in theologies of ordained ministry today is to distinguish a bishop from a presbyter when both are ordinations to the priesthood and presbyters are assuming a greater ministry of oversight as they pastor more than one parish and to distinguish deacons from presbyters at a time in church history when deacons are assuming more presbyteral functions Sacramental Orders also focuses on the mutual reciprocity in the relationship between liturgical rite and the theology of the sacrament as explained in ecclesial documents The ordination rites reflect the theology expressed by Vatican II and yet also present a theology of the sacrament embedded in the liturgical texts and actions Chapters are The Ecclesiological Foundations of Ministry The Liturgical Rite of the Ordination of a Bishop The Sacramentality of Episcopal Consecration The Liturgical Rite of the Ordination of Presbyters Theology of the Presbyterate The Liturgical Rite of the Ordination of Deacons and Questions Concerning the Diaconate Susan K Wood SCL PhD is Associate Professor of Theology at St John's University Collegeville MN She is the author of articles published in Theological Studies Pro Ecclesia One in Christ Worship Studia liturgica Communio and Studio Canonica She is a member of the U S Lutheran Roman Catholic Dialogue Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Neue Texte und Studien zu den antiken und frühmittelalterlichen Glaubensbekenntnissen Wolfram Kinzig,2017-02-20 Die Forschung zu den antiken und frühmittelalterlichen Glaubensbekenntnissen Symbolen hat sich in den letzten Jahren zu einem der aufregendsten Felder der Kirchengeschichte entwickelt Alte Gewissheiten etwa bezüglich des Alters des Apostolischen Glaubensbekenntnisses und seiner Entstehungsgeschichte wurden im Lichte neuer Entdeckungen in Frage gestellt Der Verfasser ist seit vielen Jahren an dieser Forschung maßgeblich beteiligt Im vorliegenden Band sind neue Editionen bisher nicht oder nur unvollständig bekannter lateinischer und griechischer Texte enthalten Darüber hinaus versammelt er eine Reihe von Studien in denen der Verfasser unbekannten Aspekten der Geschichte der Symbole nachgeht und zu überraschenden Erkenntnissen kommt die die Glaubensbekenntnisse in neuem Licht erscheinen lassen Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1995 Eucharistie Martin Stuflesser,2020-05-15 Wie drückt sich der Sinngehalt der Eucharistie in ihrer konkreten Fei ergestalt aus Das ist die zentrale Fragestellung mit der Martin Stuflesser die Bedeutung der Eucharistiefeier erschließt Die knappen historischen Rückblicke die das Werden der Eucharistiefeier bis zur heutigen Fei ergestalt nach dem Zweiten Vatikanischen Konzil nachzeichnen stehen ganz im Dienst dieses Anliegens In verständlicher Sprache und auf der Grundlage aktueller liturgiewissenschaftlicher Forschungsergebnisse stellt der Autor die einzelnen Teile der Eucharistiefeier vor und widmet dabei dem Herzstück der Eucharistie dem Hochgebet besondere Aufmerksamkeit Außerdem werden praktische Fragen z B Wie bereitet man eine Messe vor ebenso behandelt wie die kumenischen Probleme oder die Verehrung der Eucharistie außerhalb der Messe The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1995 Handbook for Liturgical Studies, Volume II Anscar J.
