The Beat Stops Here Mark Gibson, 2017 In The Beat Stops Here Lessons on and off the Podium for Today's Conductor master conductor Mark Gibson addresses the technique of conducting as an extension of intimate knowledge of the score to the hands and arms He employs a variety of everyday activities and motions brushing the dog Tinkerbell the door knob to describe the physical aspects of the role He advocates a comprehensive detailed approach to score study addressing major works bar by bar in terms of both musical analysis and conducting method Finally Gibson explores the various roles a conductor plays as a teacher a scholar and a member of the musical community His writing is highly focused with an occasionally tongue in cheek discussing everything from motivic development in Brahms to how to hold a knife and fork in public In short The Beat Stops Here is a compendium of style and substance in the real world of today's conductor

Chamber symphony no. 1, for 15 solo instruments, op. 9 Arnold Schoenberg, 2002-01-01 This piece is unusual in concentrating all the elements of a symphony into a single movement in being written for 15 solo instruments in using chords built up of fourths and in creating dissonances without immediate resolution To its first audiences the symphony seemed shocking But today it is one of Schoenberg's most pleasing and accessible works Scored for a chamber ensemble of flute oboe English horn two clarinets bass clarinet bassoon contrabassoon two horns two violins viola cello and bass Instrumentation Glossary
