

The book cover features a surreal landscape. A person in a blue suit and white hat walks away from the viewer on a dark, reddish-brown path that curves through the scene. In the middle ground, there is a bright green, rectangular patch of land, possibly a golf green, surrounded by brown, hilly terrain. The sky is a solid, deep blue. The overall style is painterly and mysterious.

TV in the USA Vincent LoBrutto, 2018-01-04 This three volume set is a valuable resource for researching the history of American television. An encyclopedic range of information documents how television forever changed the face of media and continues to be a powerful influence on society. What are the reasons behind enduring popularity of television genres such as police crime dramas, soap operas, sitcoms, and reality TV? What impact has television had on the culture and morality of American life? Does television largely emulate and reflect real life and society or vice versa? How does television's influence differ from that of other media such as newspapers and magazines, radio, movies, and the Internet? These are just a few of the questions explored in the three volume encyclopedia TV in the USA: A History of Icons, Idols, and Ideas. This expansive set covers television from 1950 to the present day, addressing shows of all genres, well-known programs, and short-lived series alike broadcast on the traditional and cable networks. All three volumes lead off with a keynote essay regarding the technical and historical features of the decade(s) covered. Each entry on a specific show investigates the narrative themes and history of the program, provides comprehensive information about when the show started and ended and why, and identifies the star players, directors, producers, and other key members of the crew of each television production. The set also features essays that explore how a particular program or type of show has influenced or reflected American society, and it includes numerous sidebars packed with interesting data, related information, and additional insights into the subject matter.

The Television Crime Fighters Factbook Vincent Terrace, 2015-10-02 Did you know that detective Adrian Mont Monk is afraid of milk? That Pinky's real first name on The Roaring 20s is Delaware? That on Charlie's Angels, Sabrina was the only Angel who was never seen in a bikini or swimsuit? These are only a few of the more than 9,800 facts readers will find in this work, which presents detailed information on 134 syndicated and cable series broadcast from 1948 to 2003, plus six experimental programs broadcast from 1937 to 1946, and 204 unsold pilots broadcast from 1948 to 1996 that featured the work of television's law enforcers who risk their lives to solve crimes and bring criminals to justice. The entries are arranged alphabetically and provide such details as character names, addresses, names of pets, telephone numbers, and license plate numbers, in short, anything and everything that adds interest to a program and its characters. Many of the entries contain information about related projects, including TV movies and pilots that were broadcast as part of a series, for example, Sharon Stone's appearance as detective Dani Starr on the Hollywood Starr episode of T.J. Hooker.
