Poetry Joseph Crawford, 2019-07-24 This book explores the ways in which poetic inspiration came to be associated with madness in early nineteenth century Britain By examining the works of poets such as Barrett Browning Clare Tennyson Townshend and the Spasmodics in relation to the burgeoning asylum system and shifting medical discourses of the period it investigates the ways in which Britain's post Romantic poets understood their own poetic vocations within a cultural context that insistently linked poetic talent with illness and insanity Joseph Crawford examines the popularity of mesmerism among the writers of the era as an alternative system of medicine that provided a more sympathetic account of the nature of poetic genius and investigates the persistent tension found throughout the literary and medical writings of the period between the Romantic ideal of the poet as a transcendent visionary genius and the medico psychological conception of poets as mere case studies in abnormal neurological development The Comedies, Histories, Tragedies, and Poems of Wm. Shakspeare Wm Shakespeare, 1851 Havoc & Heaven A Collection of Poems Roy Aguayo, 2017-02-12 Roy S Aguayo's first book of poetry Havoc Heaven traces the spiritual journey and search for healing of a young adult struggling to cope with bipolar and schizoaffective disorders His lush poetic imagery will challenge readers in their own personal journeys toward a deeper sense of self and their relationship with the sacred Of an Alien Homecoming Charles Bambach, 2022-07-01 Few themes resonate as powerfully in Heidegger as those connected to homecoming homeland and Heimat This emphasis plays out most powerfully in Heidegger's reading of Holderlin and his turn towards language art and poetizing as a way of thinking through the poet's relevance in the epoch of homelessness and the abandonment of the gods As the first book length study in English of the Heidegger Holderlin relation Of an Alien Homecoming addresses the tension within Heidegger's work between his disastrous political commitments during the era of National Socialism and his attempts to open a path to a German future nurtured on Holderlin's ideal of poetic dwelling Charles Bambach reads this work on Holderlin from 1934-1948 in conversation with the Black Notebooks and Heidegger's metapolitics even as he uncovers an ethical dimension within Heidegger that pervades his reading of poetry Throughout all of these various stages on Heidegger's thought path Holderlin remains the poet who poetizes the possibility of finding our lost home amidst the homelessness brought about in the epoch of technological thinking The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey, 2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden's A Ballad of Remembrance By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century's most important and influential poets As elaborated in Lauri Ramey's extensive scholarly introduction this innovative volume has dual purposes To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman's memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series a photo documentary of W E B Du Bois's 1958 visit to The Netherlands poems by poets represented in the Series and scholarly essays Also included are bibliographies of the
