Sketches Of God:

Sketches from Our Lord's History John Michael Hiffernan, 1855      Dialogues on pulpit preparation, with sketches of sermons. 4 th ed George Cubitt, 1881      Theological Sketch-book Or Skeletons of Sermons; Carefully Arranged in Systematic Order So as to Constitute a Complete Body of Divinity , 1844      Biographical Sketches of the Hon. the Lord Provosts of Glasgow , 1883      Moriah, Or, Sketches of the Sacred Rites of Ancient Israel Robert William Fraser, 1849

Letters, and Sketches of Sermons John Murray, 1813      The Art of God and the Religions of Art David Thistlethwaite, 2008-04-01

The Art of God traces the progressive loss in the West of contact with or faith in a real created order and discusses the manifestations of this loss in fine art Making detailed reference to specific artists and works Thistlewaite shows how the diversity of our responses to modern art as well as that of previous centuries inescapably raises the question of truth This readable and thought provoking book breaks new ground as it links the pleasures of art to the dynamic character of God and asks what happens to creativity and to artists when the appreciation of God is absent It thus offers readers a fresh perspective from which to appreciate art

FROM THE AUTHOR June 23 2009 All art historians must find a way of explaining the gap between the traditional art and modern Older art answered questions such as what was Henry VIII like The new is not so much about the world as about the breakdown in perceiving the world But some histories are still written as if art has followed a path of inevitable progress Others as if all beliefs that produce genuine art however weird are equally valid In my book I argue that modernism has produced a genuine art that grapples with perceived reality but that its real lack of content is disastrous When we see objects that are essentially blank or empty and start to find them significant and powerful we ought to be getting worried To explain this I have developed an account of art which sees it as a given and delightful form of knowing that equips us for living in God's world But when the art area becomes part of the human agenda for unbelief independence and defining ourselves in the cosmos it ceases to be a window on reality It starts to function as a totem replacing thought a sub human icon for humanity However towards the end of the book I focus on the dynamism of the living God and the transformative power of his grace that can turn any modern form however desolate into a vehicle of truth and meaning When modernism plunges into the depths of not knowing it can seldom go so far that real humanity and truth are not discovered in the unlikeliest places
