Carolyn Bramhall,2012-03-07 High pitched screams explode into the air unrelenting shot through with blind terror A wounded animal A torture chamber A calm voice interrupts the heart chilling cries reassuring my reluctant listening ears that the victim is in a safe place But her fearful trauma haunts me echoing in every straining sinew of my mind I switch the tape off and lean back on the cushions of the over stuffed armchair to better ponder what I have just heard Those screams belonged to a small child just a child mercilessly gripped in the vice of uncontrollable and devastating fear What atrocity would have caused such a violent outburst What unmentionable evil warped her budding innocence Can I bear to hear more Trembling I stretch over and turn the tape on again pushing the limits of my endurance to listen to more of this nerve wringing tirade I lean forward muscles tense temples throbbing mouth dry At last the screams fade to a whimper as a steady male voice soothes the young victim His words unruffled constant Her small high whine gradually lulls to a moan pathetic and painful Weary wails struggle exhausted from the tape player on the coffee table in front of me No moreno more No no more Silence He continues his balm of words You are just remembering just remembering Im here You are safe now That was all a long time ago Its all just a memory No one is going to hurt you anymore No one Youre safe now My unconscious sigh of relief jolts me back to the present and once again I stoop to switch off the tape my shaking spirit daring my mind to consider the ghastly implications of what I have just heard Will that child ever be able to describe what she has seen Will she ever be allowed to express what was done to her Will she ever be able to feel joy freedom And who is that child I struggle intensely with that last question horribly aware that I know the answer though even yet desperately clinging onto the breaking branch of my unbelief I know her well oh how well I know her I have heard her screams often That child is me

Unity ,1922 Mile Markers Denise E. McKinney,2010-01-05 The journey of adolescence can be a long winding road filled with detours wrong turns great scenery and amazing destinations But for many teens the journey can be overwhelming intimidating confusing and can leave them feeling like they re on the road alone For youth workers and parents who want to help students along this journey Mile Markers provides practical easy to execute ideas that help create places to stop and reflect along the way The included CD ROM has 30 practical activities perfect for sharing with parents and volunteers Students will discover things about themselves and God that may be hard to recognize if they don t slow down and savor some of the moments of their teenage years After more than a decade in youth ministry Denise McKinney discovered the key to her role and purpose in the lives of her students creating mile markers or guideposts to help teens see where they ve come from and where they're going Mile Markers is the practice of leading students towards personal tangible and memorable moments that help shape the person they are becoming As a parent or youth worker you have the privilege of walking alongside teens as they are on the road to discovering who they are and where they're headed You can encourage and affirm them as they begin to understand the answers to their questions of identity purpose and community and you'll guide them on their way to maturity

I Shook Hands with Death Mike Robertson, 2013-09-24 What It's Like to Die from Someone Who Did Why are we afraid of dying Where does death lead Is there an afterlife I Shook Hands with Death offers the answers as Pastor Mike Robertson shares his heartfelt account of dying at 19 in an east Texas lake seeing his lifeless body and then suddenly being brought back to life Robertson's encounter with death a near death encounter NDE is a candid conversation with the reader about death the supernatural world God's love our identity the use of time and how our priorities should be shaped by the deeper reality of God's Kingdom and presence I Shook Hands with Death is a comforting read about uncomfortable realities living and dying with purpose in a physical world woven with the supernatural Easy to read and conversational in tone Robertson goes to great lengths to help everyone see the supernatural presence of God in transforming the most stubborn of hearts Continent, 1919 International Journal of Religious Education, 1934

A King's Journey Steve Richard, 2013-12-10 A King's Journey is unlike any book you have ever read before with up to date high tech analogies that explain biblical truths for our high tech generation Spiritual truths will come to life when you view the more than twenty detailed pictures that visually depict how the Kingdom of God's Operating System KOGOS works For those who desire to live a life of meaning and purpose fulfilling the very things the Lord has planned for you this book is for you Do you want to follow the plan of God for your life but you're not sure how Do you desire to be in the center of the will of God but when it's time to make decisions you're not sure what God would have you do A King's Journey will walk you through step by step so you can know for sure the plan of God and how to make the right decisions every time

Limitless Sky David Charles Manners, 2014-06-05 This is the remarkable true story of a young man's initiation in the Himalayas David Manners was trekking in Nepal when he stumbled upon the mountain home of a jhankri or Nepalese shaman. The jhankri accepted David as his pupil and so began the next stage of David's extraordinary journey in which he embarked upon an adventure that was more challenging and ultimately life affirming than anything he could have imagined. In Limitless Sky David shares the wisdom and insights he learnt from those transformational days in the Himalayas. These include practical guidance on how to live a full and fearless life, how to find happiness and how to live in ways that nurture both ourselves and others. As David reveals, the life lessons he learned amongst the mountains of the Himalayas could benefit us all today. The American Friend, 1925
