Wilson, 2011-09-09 After a tumultuous career as a revolutionary in Ireland and an ultra conservative Catholic in the United States Thomas D Arcy McGee moved to Canada in 1857 where he became a force for moderation and the leading Irish Canadian politician in the country Determined that Canada should avoid the ethno religious strife that afflicted Ireland he articulated an inclusive broad minded nationalism based on generosity of spirit a willingness to compromise and a reasonable balance between order and liberty To realize his vision McGee became a strong supporter of the new northern nationality A spellbinding orator who emerged as the youngest and most intellectually gifted of the Fathers of Confederation he fought what he saw as the atavistic and intolerant elements of Canadian life the Orange Order with its strident anti Catholicism the opponents of separate schools whom he viewed as enemies of minority rights and above all the Fenian Brotherhood with its dreams of revolutionizing Ireland and annexing Canada to the United States Convinced that compromise with Fenianism was impossible he set out to destroy the movement through a strategy of confrontation and polarization channeling his earlier extreme tendencies in the service of moderation and attempting to reduce the influence of Fenianism within his own community In the process he alienated many of his former supporters who came to regard him as a traitor who sacrificed the cause of Irish nationalism on the altar of personal ambition On 7 April 1868 McGee was assassinated on the doorstep of his Ottawa boarding house As someone who took an uncompromising stand against militants
