Sleepwalkers Son:

The Sleepwalker's Son William Meissner, 1987 The Sleepwalkers B. B. Griffith, 2016-05-11 Is it still a crime if you commit it in your sleep Ethan Barret is on trial for attempted murder The problem is he doesn't remember doing it His hands committed the crime but he was asleep the whole time Ethan Barret is also only twelve years old Gordon Pope is down on his luck He was one of the best child psychiatrists in the country before his divorce Now he's broke bored and spiraling into depression He agrees to be an expert witness in Ethan's case because he needs the extra cash for drinking money What he doesn't know is that he's about to be thrown into a race against time to save the boy and himself before it's too late for both of them The Sleepwalkers is a riveting thriller that will change the way you think about sleep and dreams forever Zack

Files 14: Elvis, the Turnip, and Me Dan Greenburg, 1998-11-09 Late one night when Zack hears strains of Heartbreak Hotel coming from the fridge he discovers the possibility that Elvis lives on as a turnip Talk about getting back to musical roots Grieving as a Teacher's Curriculum Edward Podsiadlik III, 2019-12-16 Teachers are not automatons An educator's personal values concerns and aspirations cannot be cleaved from one's professional life without impacting the quality and relevance of the teaching experience This book examines spaces where the personal and professional intersect thereby deepening our understanding of the nuances and complexities of a teacher's work It draws readers into places of vulnerability moments of grieving As a teacher's curriculum as a curriculum of life grief has much to teach about sympathy compassion and resilience Educational philosophy literary analysis and reflective practice are used to explore ways grief can help us better ascertain the scope and depth of the educators we are and have the potential to become Pieces of literature used include works by Pat Conroy Charles Dickens Stephen King Rabindranath Tagore Virgil Franz Wedekind and Virginia Woolf Also included are ideas from a diverse set of educational philosophers social and cultural commentators poets and more Chapters conclude with Topics for Reflection for further individual and or collective reflection and discourse Educators at all stages of their careers will benefit from this study that demonstrates the impact personal grieving can have on remembering recovering and reidentifying with one's mission and vision As a resource for pre-service or veteran teachers the text celebrates the power of introspection to transform our work our lives and the lives of our students It is equally relevant for parents coaches mentors and anyone who takes on the kinds of teacher roles that impact nourish and inspire the lives of others See inside the book One Deidra Riggs, 2017-04-04 Jesus didn't say that the world would know we are his followers by our biting rhetoric our political leanings our charity work or even by our knowledge of Scripture He said the world would know us by our love for one another Yet it's so easy to put others at arm's length to lash out to put up walls Deidra Riggs wants us to put our focus on self-preservation aside and like Jesus make the first move toward reconciliation In One Riggs shows readers that when Jesus offered himself up in our place he was not only purchasing our salvation but also setting an example for us to follow She helps readers understand that they are secure in God's inexhaustible love making them free to love others lavishly not just in what they do but in what they say what they don't say what they will endure and what they will forgive Anyone who longs for unity in the church in their family and in their community will find in this book both inspiring examples of loving done well and encouragement to begin the often unnoticed hard work of building bridges with those around them

The Sleepwalkers Hermann Broch, 2011-07-20 With his epic trilogy The Sleepwalkers Hermann Broch established himself as one of the great innovators of modern literature a visionary writer philosopher the equal of James Joyce Thomas Mann or Robert Musil Even as he grounded his narratives in the intimate daily life of Germany Broch was identifying the oceanic changes that would shortly sweep that life into the abyss Whether he is writing about a neurotic army officer The Romantic a disgruntled bookkeeper and would be assassin The Anarchist or an opportunistic war deserter The Relativist Broch immerses himself in the twists of his characters' psyches and at the same time soars above them to produce a prophetic portrait of a world tormented by its loss of faith morals and reason

Horror Films of the 1990s John Kenneth Muir, 2011-10-06 This filmography covers more than 300 horror films released from 1990 through 1999 The horror genre's trends and clichés are connected to social and cultural phenomena such as Y2K fears and the Los Angeles riots Popular films were about serial killers aliens conspiracies and sinister interlopers new monsters who shambled their way into havoc Each of the films is discussed at length with detailed credits and critical commentary There are six appendices 1990s clichés and conventions 1990s hall of fame memorable ad lines movie references in Scream 1990s horrors vs The X-Files and the decade's ten best Fully indexed 224 photographs

Lost Son Hermann Broch, 2012-12-01 By any measure Hermann Broch was one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century Author of The Sleepwalkers and The Spell he stands together with James Joyce and Marcel Proust at the pinnacle of literary Modernism Born in 1886 he saw the First World War destroy the culture and consciousness of what had come before seeing the West thrust unwillingly into the modern age By 1938 Broch found himself arrested and detained during which time he began work on his greatest novel The Death of Virgil Dozens of friends from all over the world managed to help him find his release and he moved to the United States where he lived for the rest of his life With his wife Franziska Broch had only a single child Armand While Broch had become preoccupied with deep questions of philosophy psychology and politics his son became a thoroughgoing materialist Sent away to an elite boarding school when 14 Armand found himself surrounded by students from the richest families in Europe He became devoted to sports to fast luxury cars his father did not even know how to drive and to the first class lifestyle of his classmates These letters show the profound breach that developed between father and son They also provide a portrait of the Gilded Age a time of remarkable change as Europe headed on a course of horrible inevitability Letters from Broch during this time are uncommon so we also get a chance to follow the trajectory of his life as he prepares to leave his job as an industrialist and devote himself to study and to writing
