Slow Wine The International Herald Of Tastes The Magazine Of The Slow Food Movement:

Slow Food Carlo Petrini, 2004-10-06 Discusses the history and spread of the International Slow Food Movement which was sparked in 1986 when Carlo Petrini organized a protest against plans to build a McDonald's fast food restaurant near the Spanish Steps in Rome and discusses the movement's goals of preserving indigenous foods and eating traditions and returning to dining as a social event

Measured Meals Jessica J. Mudry, 2009-02-18 2009 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title As nutritional studies proliferate producing more and more knowledge about the connection between diet and health Americans seem increasingly confused about what to eat to stay healthy In Measured Meals Jessica J. Mudry looks at the language used in the United States to communicate about health and nutrition and reveals its effects on reframing reshaping and controlling what and how Americans eat Analyzing the USDA and American federal food guidelines over the past one hundred years Mudry shows how the language of nutrition has evolved over time She critiques the trend of discussing food in terms of quantification calories vitamins and serving sizes She also examines how organizations such as the USDA attempt to legislate a healthy diet by mandating quantities of food based on measurable nutrients revealing the power of language to make meaning and influence social action

Food Tourism Around The World C. Michael Hall, Liz Sharples, Richard Mitchell, Niki Macdonis, Brock Cambourne, 2004-02-18 Food and wine are vital components of the tourism experience and are increasingly being seen as prime travel motivators in their own right Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets offers a unique insight into this phenomenon looking at the interrelationship between food the tourism product and the tourist experience Using international case studies and examples from Europe North America Australasia and Singapore Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets discusses the development range and repercussions of the food tourism phenomenon The multi national contributor team analyses such issues as the food tourism product food tourism and consumer behaviour cookery schools educational vacations food as an attraction in destination marketing Ideal for both students and practitioners the book represents the most comprehensive and wide ranging treatment yet of this recent development in tourism

Pathways to High-Tech Valleys and Research Triangles Willem Hulsink, J. J. M. Dons, 2008-05-23 About the book The contents of most of the chapters included in this volume were originally presented and discussed during the academic workshop High tech Valleys and Research Triangles in the East of the Netherlands and elsewhere held on 30 November and 1 December 2005 at the Wageningen International Congress Centre WICC in the Netherlands At that time we had an informal agreement with Rob Bogers series editor of the Wageningen UR Frontis book series that if the quality and quantity of the talks and papers at the seminar would be sufficient and if there was willingness among the potential authors an edited book volume based upon the results of the workshop would be a possibility After the workshop when we had a critical mass of ten chapters and a dedicated group of committed authors the book project was given the green light As editors we realized that there were still a couple of topics and themes missing and when we had found colleagues for these four additional chapters that needed to be written our Frontis book was on the roll Although most of the time it was great fun the whole process of writing reviewing rewriting editing and proofreading took a lot of time much more time than we originally had foreseen We would like to thank all authors of the fourteen chapters of this book for their excellent contributions Resource Guide for Food Writers Gary Allen, 2017-06-29
