Smith Collects Contemporary:

Smith Collects Contemporary, 1991 Cleveland Collects Contemporary Art Tom E. Hinson, 1998 Contemporary Collecting Kevin M. Moist, David Banash, 2013-05-09 While the importance of collections has been evident in the sciences and humanities for several centuries the social and cultural significance of collecting practices is now receiving serious attention as well As reflected in programs like Antiques Roadshow and American Pickers and websites such as eBay collecting has had a consistent and growing presence in popular culture In tandem with popular collecting institutions are responding to changes in the collecting environment as library catalogs go online and museums use new technologies to help generate attendance for their exhibits In Contemporary Collecting Objects Practices and the Fate of Things Kevin M Moist and David Banash have assembled several essays that examine collecting practices on both a personal and professional level These essays situate collectors and collections in a contemporary context and also show how our changing world finds new meaning in the legacy of older collections Arranged by such themes as Collecting in a Virtual World Changing Relationships with Things Collecting and Identity Personal and Political and Collecting Practices and Cultural Hierarchies these essays help illuminate the role of objects in our lives Covering a breadth of interdisciplinary perspectives and subjects from PEZ candy dispensers and trading cards to sports memorabilia and music Contemporary Collecting will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies anthropology popular culture studies sociology art history and more Contemporary Poetry Archive

Linda Anderson, 2019-05-23 Explores critical and creative responses to the contemporary poetry archive Provides an innovative new dialogue between critics and creative writers on the value and practice of the literary archive Expands the scope for understanding perspectives on and the opposition between creative and critical relations to archival materials Opens up a new cross disciplinary agenda for thinking the archive as both a source for scholarship and a source of inspiration for creative practice These 13 newly commissioned chapters examine the impact of archival poetry collections on both literary scholarship and poetic practice They examine what we can learn from the drafts notebooks and personal libraries left behind by poets and look at the ways in which the growth of poetry archives has changed the way poets think about their work The contributing poets and scholars including Susan Howe Sean O'Brien and George Szirtes present an in depth account of the significance of poetry archives for contemporary literature The collection provides a new cross disciplinary agenda for thinking about the archive as both a source for scholarship and inspiration for creative practice

Heritage Vintage & Contemporary Photography Auction #5020, Contemporary Legend Gillian Bennett, Paul Smith, 2013-09-05 First published in 1996 For most of the time since the Grimm brothers first contrasted the fairy tale Märchen and the legend Sage the former has enjoyed the greater reputation among folklorists Only in recent years and with the work of such scholars as Gillian Bennett and Paul Smith has it been recognized that both as art and as news the legend is now central to contemporary culture in a way that the Märchen no longer is The present book is the first collection of essays on legend to appear in English since 1971 Nevertheless its publication consolidates a gradual shift which has taken place over the last two decades in which English language scholarship has taken the lead in the study of certain kinds of legends variously dubbed modern horror legends urban legends urban myths or here contemporary legends The Contemporary Review, 1919 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry offers thirty eight chapters of ground breaking research that form a collaborative guide to the many groupings and movements the locations and styles as well as concerns aesthetic political cultural and ethical that have helped shape contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland The book s introduction offers an anthropological participant observer approach to its variously conflicted subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers A Window Suddenly Opens Claire Roberts, Orville Schell, Karen Smith, 2023-01-01 A lively tour through experimental Chinese photography from the early 1990s to today The past thirty years were dynamic transformative decades in Chinese photography Artists exposed to recent work from around the globe experimented with photography in newly conceptual and expressive ways and their art from this period offers a portrait of a country at a moment of rapid urbanization globalization and cultural foment A Window Suddenly Opens reveals the key role that photography has played in questioning and refashioning the aesthetic and social status quo of modern Chinese society for the past three decades Alongside prescient works by Cao Fei Lin Tianmiao Rong Rong Song Dong Wang Qingsong Zhang Huan Zhang Peili and many other artists essays and interviews by scholars and curators explore the history of experimental photography in China and the artistic transformations of the digital age The book also features texts written between 1994 and 2014 by Chinese artists some published for the first time here in English which offer essential insights into their ideas and experiences as they forged new creative paths To explore further readers can instantly access artist videos inside this book with Hirshhorn Eye the Hirshhorn Museum s award winning image recognition technology Published in association with the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden Exhibition Schedule Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden November 4

2022 January 7 2024 Jaune Quick-to-See Smith Carolyn Kastner, 2013-10-15 The first full length critical analysis of the paintings of Jaune Quick to See Smith this book focuses on Smith's role as a modernist in addition to her status as a wellknown Native American artist With close readings of Smith's work Carolyn Kastner shows how Smith simultaneously contributes to and critiques American art and its history Smith has distinguished herself as a modernist both in her pursuit of abstraction and her expressive technique but too often her identity as a Native American artist has overshadowed these aspects of her work Addressing specific themes in Smith's career Kastner situates Smith within specific historical and cultural moments of American art comparing her work to the abstractions of Kandinsky and Mir as well as to the pop art of Rauschenberg and Johns She discusses Smith's appropriation of pop culture icons like the Barbie doll reimagined by the artist as Barbie Plenty Horses As Kastner considers how Smith constructs each new series of artworks within the artistic social and political discourse of its time she defines her contribution to American modernism and its history Discussing the ways in which Smith draws upon her cultural heritage both Native and non Native Kastner demonstrates how Smith has expanded the definitions of American and modernist art

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford, 2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere

The Contemporary American Monologue Eddie Paterson,2015-12-17 Talk show confessions online rants stand up routines inspirational speeches banal reflections and calls to arms we live in an age of solo voices demanding to be heard In The Contemporary American Monologue Eddie Paterson looks at the pioneering work of US artists Spalding Gray Laurie Anderson Anna Deavere Smith and Karen Finley and the development of solo performance in the US as a method of cultural and political critique Ironic confession post punk poetry investigations of race and violence and subversive polemic this book reveals the link between the rise of radical monologue in the late 20th century and history of speechmaking politics civil rights individual freedom and the American Dream in the United States It shows how US artists are speaking back to the cultural political and economic forces that shape the world Eddie Paterson traces the importance of the monologue in Shakespeare Brecht Beckett Chekov Pinter O'Neill and Williams before offering a comprehensive analysis of several of the most influential and innovative American practitioners of monologue performance The Contemporary American Monologue constitutes the first book length account of US monologists that links the tradition of oratory and speechmaking in the colony to the appearance of solo performance as a distinctly American phenomenon Our Ancient National Airs: Scottish Song Collecting from the Enlightenment to the Romantic Era Karen McAulay,2016-05-13 One of the earliest documented Scottish song collectors actually to go into the field to gather his specimens was the Highlander Joseph Macdonald Macdonald emigrated in 1760 contemporaneously with the start of James Macpherson's famous but much disputed Ossian project and it fell to the Revd Patrick Macdonald to finish and subsequently publish his younger brother's collection Karen McAulay traces the complex history of Scottish song collecting and the publication of major Highland and Lowland collections over the ensuing 130 years Looking at sources authenticity collecting methodology and format McAulay places these collections in their cultural context and traces links with contemporary attitudes towards such wide ranging topics as the embryonic tourism and travel industry cultural nationalism fakery and forgery literary and musical creativity and the move from antiquarianism and dilettantism towards an increasingly scholarly and didactic tone in the mid to late Victorian collections Attention is given to some of the performance issues raised either in correspondence or in the paratexts of published collections and the narrative is interlaced with references to contemporary literary social and even political history as it affected the collectors themselves Most significantly this study demonstrates a resurgence of cultural nationalism in the late nineteenth century Muse Janet Holmes à Court,2017 Muse offers an inside view of the development of a contemporary Australia art collection Janet Holmes à Court in conversation about art and the intense interest she shared with her late husband Robert from the 1960s offers a rationale along with an emotional soundtrack for the 146 works she singles out from a collection of more than 5000 artworks Janet discusses these selections with Terri ann White in the racks where they are stored and in domestic spaces where they hang This is an illuminating book about a passion for art and expression a deep affinity and curiosity about artists and how they make things The Contemporary Construction of the Chinese Form of Marxist Literary Criticism Yamin Hu,2023-08-05 This open access book is the first comprehensive and systematic study of Chinese Marxist literary criticism as an independent theoretical form It discusses and describes the theoretical features of the Chinese form of Marxist literary criticism by refining and re interpreting the iconic key concepts of people nation politics praxis along with the relationships between literature technology and capital Literary criticism and value judgment has also been discussed at length with insightful and valuable views being provided This book is a brilliant introduction to the topic and ideal academic material for global readers to grasp the essence of Chinese Marxist literary critical thought Contemporary Postcolonial Theory Padmini Mongia,2021-01-07 There is a crisis in contemporary postcolonial theory while an enormous body of challenging research has been produced under its auspices severely critical questions about the validity and usefulness of this theory have also been raised This Reader is positioned at the juncture where it can address these contestations It makes available some of the classics of the field engages with the issues raised by contemporary practitioners but also offers several of the arguments that strongly critique postcolonial theory Although postcolonial theory purports to be inter disciplinary and frequently anti foundationalist traces of disciplinary formations and linearity have continued to haunt its articulations This Reader on the other hand offers a uniquely inter disciplinary mapping It is concerned with three main areas definitional problems and contests including the current challenges to postcolonial theory the disciplining of knowledge where the multiple resonances of the word disciplining are all engaged and the location of practice where the relations between intellectual practice and historical conditions are explored Finally since the guiding principle of this Reader is simultaneous attention to the enabling and constraining mechanisms of historical realities and institutional practices the commentary problematizes the writing of histories the formations of canons and indeed the production of Readers
