1983 to 1989 Gémino H. Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women's relationships to human and nonhuman worlds

Balik-Tanaw: The Road Taken Soledad S. Reyes, 2023-03-23 Balik Tanaw The Road Taken is the memoir of the distinguished Filipino critic Soledad S. Reyes This book is a record of Reyes's journey of more than seven decades where personal narrative intertwines with people and events with social and political movements with which the country sought to negotiate the treacherous shoals in the postwar years The account carries a fair amount of biographical data as lodged in the critic's memory in the absence of diaries from her childhood into her college years But as the context becomes wider and more complex the narrative takes on a more analytical frame as she tries to make sense of disparate experiences whirling about her in the tumult of the 1970s and beyond and in the startling changes in the political landscape local and global that now grip the Filipino nation This account according to the author is a story of an individual constructing a narrative that seeks to impose order upon chaos by retrieving aspects of the past and weaving a series of recalcitrant experiences into a coherent whole Published in association with De La Salle University Publishing House
