Organists and Organ Playing in Nineteenth-Century France and Belgium Orpha Ochse, 2000-08-22 The art of the organist in nineteenth century France and Belgium is a rags to riches story full of extraordinary problems and changes Devastated by the French Revolution the organ profession rose from desperate circumstances to a period of remarkable brilliance By the end of the nineteenth century organ playing was enthusiastically applauded and had been thoroughly integrated in the musical life of Paris This account is not just a record of stellar events and famous names it includes failures all but forgotten musicians and unexpected encounters In a carefully documented study that is both scholarly and engaging Orpha Ochse traces three major aspects of the organist's art the development of the secular recital the organist as church musician and the education of organists In addition to presenting a comprehensive view of the organ profession in France and Belgium throughout the period she offers a new perspective on nineteenth century music in general School of Music Programs University of Michigan. Messiaen the Theologian Andrew Shenton, 2017-07-05 For Olivier Messiaen music was a way of expressing his faith He considered it his good fortune to have been born a Catholic and declared that the illumination of the theological truths of the Catholic faith is the first aspect of my work the noblest and no doubt the most useful Messiaen is one of the most widely performed and recorded composers of the twentieth century and his popularity is increasing but the theological component of his music has so far largely been neglected or dealt with superficially and continues to provide a serious impediment to understanding and appreciating his music for some of his audience Messiaen the Theologian makes a significant contribution to Messiaen studies by providing cultural and historical context to Messiaen's theology An international array of Messiaen scholars cover a wide variety of topics including Messiaen's personal spirituality the context of Catholicism in France in the twentieth century and comparisons between Messiaen and other artists such as Dante and T S Eliot Interdisciplinary methodologies such as exegesis theological studies and analysis are used to contribute to the understanding of several major works including Sept Haïka and Saint Francis d'Assise By approaching Messiaen and his music from such important and original perspectives this book will be of interest not only to musicians and theologians but also to readers interested in the connection between spirituality and the arts

Maurice Duruflé James E. Frazier, 2007 Drawing on the accounts of those who knew Duruflé personally as well as on Frazier's own detailed research this new biography offers a broad sketch of this modest and elusive man widely recognized today for having created some of the greatest works in the organ repertory and the masterful Requiem Frazier also examines the career and contributions of Duruflé's wife the formidable organist Marie Madeleine Duruflé Chevalier

Maurice Duruflé, 1902-1986 Ronald Ebrecht, 2002-06-11 Maurice Duruflé 1902-1986 is best known as composer of the hauntingly beautiful and moving Requiem of 1947 and as organist during his long tenure at the church of Saint Etienne du Mont in Paris He studied composition and organ with Tournemire Vierne Gigout and Dukas among others and became well known outside France through tours and conferences often attended with his wife the late Marie Madeleine Chevalier Ebrecht has brought together in this centenary tribute a fine collection of articles on Duruflé's life and work that will enthrall all those who have come under the spell of this great master of French Impressionism About the contributors Marie Claire Alain the renowned French organist recording artist and teacher was one of Duruflé's first harmony students at the Paris Conservatoire James Frazier has studied liturgy and music at several universities and was a Fulbright scholar in France where he studied privately with Madame Durufl. Maria Rubis Bauer concluded her doctoral dissertation on Durufl at the University of Kansas. Jeffrey Reynolds is Associate Professor of Humanities and chair of the music department at the University of Alabama Birmingham. Herndon Spillman's landmark recording of the complete works of Durufl won him a Grand Prix du Disque in 1973. He is Professor of Music at Louisiana State University. Eliane Chevalier was the sister of Marie Madeleine Durufl with whom she shared a passion for music. Ned Tipton is Director of Music of the American Cathedral in Paris.

Joseph Jongen and His Organ Music John Scott Whiteley, 1997. Joseph Jongen was Director of the Brussels Conservatoire from 1925 to 1939. He was first and foremost a composer and yet his career as an organist and composer of organ music was remarkable. His Sonata Eroica has become one of the enduring works of the repertory and the Symphonie Concertante commissioned by Rodman Wanamaker for the organ of the Philadelphia store has been considered the finest of all twentieth century organ concertos. This is the first book ever to appear about Joseph Jongen in any language. It is based on twenty years of research by its author John Scott Whiteley. Part I traces Jongen's life and achievements as an organist from his earliest training in Franck's birthplace Liège to his exile in England and his final years in Brussels during which time he headed the team that designed the organ for Belgian Radio. Part II is a guide to the organ music from the points of view of both performer and musicologist. Appendices provide a catalogue of works, a numbering system for his works without opus numbers, specifications of the organs he played and lists of variant readings in his manuscripts. This book is indispensable for serious students of the organ, the Romantic organ repertoire and European music of the early twentieth century.
