Homeowners of a quaint West First Avenue home continually find bright red lipstick prints throughout the house. The owner of a flagstone house on East Twenty Third Street awoke to the apparition of a weathered elderly man leaving a loving kiss on her forehead while whispering "Good morning granddaughter." A caller to a Cheyenne radio station recounted the tragic story of the death of her two sisters before she was born and their childhood tea party visitations. From the lingering smell of roses to phantasms in family photos, these local stories remind us that the deceased can give reassuring touches and guidance through struggles and share in our important moments and milestones.
