Jubuntu Larissa Denk, 2023-02-13 This study investigates the nexus between giving belonging and Jewishness in South Africa Charitable interactions are as much manifestations of inequalities as an expression of the giving individual's desire to alleviate them Structuring aspects like class race economics and post apartheid politics are at the basis of this study At the same time though it is individual agency reproducing inequalities and making sense of the ambiguity of the charitable interaction In the context of the Jewish community in South Africa this analysis shows how the community's organisations practices and concepts are connected to charitable giving The author carved out three dimensions which are entangled reinforced or at times contradict each other Belonging diaspora and charitable giving Along with shared values and practices it relates to volunteering or charitable giving connects one individual to a group while possibly excluding another from it Expressing belonging to the Jewish collective as a diaspora community relates individuals or collectives to the triadic relationship between local diaspora group host society and homeland and other local communities of the same diaspora

Amy Biehl's Last Home Steven D. Gish, 2018-06-13 In 1993 white American Fulbright scholar Amy Biehl was killed in a racially motivated attack near Cape Town after spending months working to promote democracy and women's rights in South Africa The ironic circumstances of her death generated enormous international publicity and yielded one of South Africa's most heralded stories of postapartheid reconciliation Amy's parents not only established a humanitarian foundation to serve the black township where she was killed but supported amnesty for her killers and hired two of the young men to work for the Amy Biehl Foundation The Biehls were hailed as heroes by Nelson Mandela Desmond Tutu and many others in South Africa and the United States but their path toward healing was neither quick nor easy Granted unrestricted access to the Biehl family's papers Steven Gish brings Amy and the Foundation to life in ways that have eluded previous authors He is the first to place Biehl's story in its full historical context while also presenting a gripping portrait of this remarkable young woman and the aftermath of her death across two continents

Soul Fire Sandile Dikeni,2002 One of the most authentic voices of this land is how Antjie Krog has described Sandile Dikeni Since 1992 Dikeni has in the Cape Times newspaper as well as various magazines attempted to change the way in which South Africa sees itself His progressive perspective on what it is to be human in South Africa has underpinned all his reflections on the kind of society he yearns for whether he is confronting racism in its many guises commenting on Hansie or the National Symphony Orchestra or sharing personal experiences Soul Fire brings together an entertaining and thought provoking collection of Dikeni s prose The essays run close to the heartbeat of South Africa but also travel beyond to Brazil Norway Holland Germany and India

Transforming Cape Town Catherine Besteman,2008-09-02 An engaging insightful and at times beautifully written account of post apartheid transformation in the city of Cape Town Besteman shows the continuing legacy of apartheid racial segregation and poverty in South Africa as well as glimpses of new forms of cultural creativity and identity formation that are characterized by empathy compassion and hope Transforming Cape Town deserves to be read by anthropologists and anyone interested in how people confront the challenges of racial exclusion and historical inequality and how a few bold agents of transformation seek to create new social spaces to cross old barriers Richard A Wilson author of The Politics of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Cape Town and anthropology come alive in Besteman s work Insightful dynamic and well written this book opens a space of trust to understanding the pains and creative innovations of transition of people politics and daily survival in a new light Carolyn Nordstrom author of Global Outlaws and Shadows of War Besteman navigates and illuminates post apartheid Cape Town with uncommon skill She brings to bear an anthropologist s training a reporter s eye and ear for the choice remark the telling detail and a candid sympathy for the disenfranchised whose lot in South Africa has not necessarily improved under democracy It s a distressing picture she draws the persisting mutual ignorance even reciprocal demonization across old ethnic and racial lines alongside the ongoing economic injustice The revolution in South Africa has been a piecemeal affair and Besteman s descriptions of the difficulties that even the best intentioned individuals encounter as they struggle toward creating a general social transformation ring painfully true William Finnegan author of Crossing the Line Dateline Soweto A Complicated War and Cold New World Transforming Cape Town is a fascinating account of how people in this divided city engage with democracy transformation and the legacies and ongoing realities of radical inequalities Through conversations with ordinary people Besteman explores the ways in which apartheid s legacies continue to shape interactions both intimate and public In doing so she restores a sense of faith in anthropology as a tool for understanding and critiquing social worlds

Fiona Ross author of Bearing Witness Women and Truth and Reconciliation The Mandela Collection

Various,2014-12-18 Nelson Mandela s death dominated our thinking at the close of 2013 These two short books provide informed objective insight into the making of the man and his unparalleled impact on our world Tom Lodge s book presents a host of fresh insights about the influences that shaped the man Unstable Ground Rosalind C. Morris,2025-03-04 What has gold done to people What has it made them do The Witwatersrand in South Africa once home to the world s richest goldfields is today scattered with abandoned mines into which informal miners known as zama zamas venture in an illicit often deadly search for ore Based on field research conducted across more than twenty five years around these mines Unstable Ground reveals the worlds that gold made possible and gold s profound costs for those who have lived in its shadow and dreamt of its transformative power From the vantage point of the closure of South Africa s gold mines Rosalind C Morris reconsiders their histories beginning in the present and descending into the pasts that shaped them Anchored in evocative descriptions of mining in the ruins this book explores the social worlds built on gold and the lives that were remade and sometimes undone by the industry over a century and a half Viewing this industry from its margins against the backdrop of the cyanide revolution the gold standard s demise and recurrent sinkholes as well as the insurrectionary protests and violence that continue to this day it recasts the history of South Africa and the incomplete effort to overcome apartheid amid the transformations of the global economy In writing that is by turns immersive incisive and poetic Morris unearths a history that was born of imperial aspiration and that persists as a speculative mirage Interweaving ethnography history personal testimony and political thought with striking readings of South African literary texts Unstable Ground is a work of extraordinary ambition and depth Every Step of the Way Michael Morris,2004 Every Step of the Way celebrates the tenth anniversary of South Africa s first democratic election but also seeks to widen and promote a conversation about South Africa s contested pasts The Cambridge Companion to Nelson Mandela Rita Barnard,2014-01-31 Nelson Mandela is one

The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig MacKenzie, 2010 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945
