and intellectual stimulation of law school into the rigors and worries of Army life during the Vietnam War In clear entertaining and memorable language Kornstein looks back more than half a century to explain and try to understand how he and his generation felt about and dealt with the moral issues posed by the Vietnam draft The author describes what it was like to receive his draft notice as he studied for his first year final exams what his reactions were and what choices he made and why Like Proust the seventy four year old author moves back through time into his memory dipping into and out of his consciousness with his old Army dog tags as his madeleine Kornstein turns the story of his being drafted into the Vietnam Era Army into an expansive meditation on coming of age in the shadow of an unpopular war and making important life decisions about reacting to that war It is his eloquent attempt to use his personal experiences and moods to explore larger issues to connect social cultural and historical dots about the relationship between the military and civilian spheres of life in America to think about what it even means to be an American citizen The climax of Kornstein s time in uniform was being assigned as a legal clerk for the prosecutors of a court martial arising from the horrible 1968 My Lai Massacre in which U S soldiers killed hundreds of unarmed non combatant old men women and children He discusses and analyzes that case In a final chapter the author provides a personal long delayed after action report summarizing significant lessons from his two year military experience as a draftee He considers the pros and cons of an all volunteer military whether a draft is necessary and if so how to make it fair and equitable the possibility of other forms of national service our continuing entanglement in undeclared wars more recent examples of war atrocities and the residual effects of military service on individuals Uncle Sam Wanted Me offers insights ripened reflections for the author s generation as well as for a new generation that overwhelmingly isn t personally exposed to anything military much less the draft Code of Federal Regulations ,2005
