Excerpt: My dearest Sophie, I had a parting glimpse of you Monday forenoon at your window, and that image abides by me, looking pale and not so quiet as is your wont. I have reproached myself many times since because I did not show my face, and then we should both have smiled, and so our reminiscences would have been sunny instead of shadowy. But I believe I was so intent on seeing you that I forgot all about the desirableness of being myself seen.
