From One Direction and Adele to Penelope Cruz and Alexander Skarsgård, many Europeans are becoming household names in the United States. Reminiscing Our Heritage Danny Walsh, 2017-07-05 This book is designed to be used by anybody working with older adults in residential nursing and day care facilities. It provides a wealth of reminiscence material which can be used in a number of ways to rekindle memories and provide stimulating activity such as quizzes and discussion. Each year covered in the book is divided into the sections: Major events, On the home front, Music, Television, Screen and page, Sport, and Do you remember. Many sections can be easily turned into quizzes, and it would be simple to form a quiz from each year's material. One cannot cover all that happened in these years nor highlight all the associations; each event or fact triggers so the material is intended to be expanded on by the memories it triggers in clients during discussion. So, for example, where a film title is mentioned, ask if people can recall the stars of the film, its plot, and how it ended. The Major events section will trigger lots of opinions too, as it covers the political events of the decades, so try to get the groups to discuss the ethical and moral dilemmas these posed at the time. The book is intended for use with individuals and groups, but you will discover that in a group, one person's memories will trigger another's, and so what seems like a small topic can last for the whole session as we all try to tell our personal tales. While the content has a UK bias, it also covers the major world events of the decades, but I have included a blank page for each year for you to record your own personal landmarks and achievements, and also those of your local town or community, specialising in older adults' mental health to a deeper level. Forum X Tiffany

Murder on Easey Street Helen Thomas, 2019-03-01 1977 Collingwood Two young women are brutally murdered. The killer has never been found. What happened in the house on Easey Street? On a warm night in January, Suzanne Armstrong and Susan Bartlett were savagely murdered in their house on Easey Street, Collingwood, stabbed multiple times while Suzanne's sixteen month old baby slept in his cot Although police established a list of more than 100 persons of interest the case became one of the most infamous unsolved crimes in Melbourne Journalist Helen Thomas was a cub reporter at The Age when the murders were committed and saw how deeply they affected the city Now forty two years on she has re examined the cold case chasing down new leads and talking to members of the Armstrong and Bartlett families the women s neighbours on Easey Street detectives and journalists What emerges is a portrait of a crime rife with ambiguities and contradictions which took place at a fascinating time in the city s history when the countercultural bohemia of Helen Garner s Monkey Grip brushed up against the grit of the underworld in one of Melbourne s most notorious suburbs Why has the Easey Street murderer never been found despite the million dollar reward for information leading to an arrest Did the women know their killer or were their deaths due to a random frenzied attack Could the murderer have killed again This gripping account addresses these questions and more as it sheds new light on one of Australia s most disturbing and compelling criminal mysteries An overdue examination of the Easey Street murders that adds tantalising new information to known and forgotten facts Andrew Rule journalist and co author of Underbelly Helen Thomas meticulous examination is chilling reading

The Age Twentieth Century Crime & Mystery Writers NA NA,2015-12-25 Airpower in Literature Kimberly K. Dougherty,2022-08-08 The first century of airpower has ended yet few critics have addressed the literature that chronicles its human toll Airpower in Literature Interrogating the Clean War 1915 2015 offers fresh insight into this airpower century by placing literature of five major wars in conversation with the clean war discourse Kimberly Dougherty examines the paradoxical representation of aerial warfare that has allowed extensive airstrikes on cities and civilians while promising a cleaner method of waging war First suggested by early military theorists the notion of a clean air war one that would save lives through its speed and precision proved seductive in the twentieth century and continues to shape the rhetoric of airpower today The air war is perceived as clean the author argues when we see neither the aviator nor the targeted populations in the bombing dynamic Through analysis of fiction poetry drama and journalism from the ruins of World War I to the technologies of post modern war the author identifies counternarratives that make visible both aviators and bombed societies and present aerial warfare that is not clean but messy prolonged and imprecise This exploration encourages readers and writers to approach the next century of airpower with greater wisdom and empathy Roald Dahl Damian Walford Davies,2016-08-15 Published to mark the centenary of Roald Dahl s Welsh birth Roald Dahl Wales of the Unexpected breaks new ground by revealing the place of Wales in the imagination of the writer known as the world s number one storyteller Exploring the complex conditioning presence of Wales in his life and work the essays in this collection dramatically defamiliarise Dahl and in the process render him uncanny Importantly Dahl is encountered whole his books for children and his fiction for adults are read as mutually invigorating bodies of work both of which evidence the ways in which Wales and the author s Anglo Welsh orientation demand articulation throughout the career Recognising the impossibility of constructing a monolithic Welsh Dahl the contributors explore the compound and nuanced ways in which Wales signifies across the oeuvre Roald Dahl Wales of the Unexpected takes Dahl studies into new territory in terms of both subject and method showing the new horizons that open up when Dahl is read through a Welsh lens Locating Dahl in illuminating new textual networks resourcefully offering fresh angles of entry into classic Dahl texts rehabilitating neglected Dahl texts and analysing the layered genesis of seemingly familiar works by excavating the manuscripts this innovative volume brings Dahl home in order to render him invigoratingly unhomely The result is not a parochialisation of Dahl but rather a new internationalisation

Fear of Aging João Paulo Guimarães, 2025-02-27 In the genre of horror elderly people are often used as a trope to evoke both a fear of death and a fear of aging Old age is therefore equated with bodily mental or social decline The contributors of this book investigate what exactly we are afraid of when we posit old age as a source of horror The aim is to harness the thrills and pleasures of horror to think about how quality of life can be improved in old age and how elderly people can be better integrated in our ever fearful and suspicious societies
