

"He drew his broadsword and looked about him, trying to locate the beady black eyes he knew glittered at him from somewhere in the close-set greasewood bushes. ... Even as he sought the slayer of his steed, the man appeared—he rose erect and sprang over a low shrub almost in one movement. A vengeful yell of triumph quivered in the late afternoon stillness.

"An instant they faced one another, separated by more than the fifty foot stretch of lawny sand—the New World and the Old personified in the two men."
