The Rise of the Modernist Bookshop Huw Osborne, 2016-03-09 The trade in books has always been and remains an ambiguous commercial activity associated as it is with literature and the exchange of ideas This collection is concerned with the cultural and economic roles of independent bookstores and it considers how eight shops founded during the modernist era provided distinctive spaces of literary production that exceeded and yet never escaped their commercial functions As the contributors show these booksellers were essential institutional players in literary networks When the eight shops examined first opened their doors their relevance to literary and commercial life was taken for granted In our current context of box stores online shopping and ebooks we no longer encounter the book as we did as recently as twenty years ago By contributing to our understanding of bookshops as unique social spaces on the thresholds of commerce and culture this volume helps to lay the groundwork for comprehending how our relationship to books and literature has been and will be affected by the physical changes to the reading experience taking place in the twenty first century Joyce and Feminism Bonnie Kime Scott, 1984 Scott asserts that a new feminist consciousness will facilitate fresh discoveries in Joyce Shifting from contexts to individuals to texts she provides the reader with a re vision of women and Joyce She develops a feminist framework for approaching Joyce which allows for the mutual communication of conventional and feminist critics In Joyce and Feminism Scott demonstrates Joyce s need for and use of women in the creation and publication of his work She evaluates his sensitivity to the problems of real women in life and fiction and discusses the evolution of his work from early realistic depictions to late recreations of the goddess Jacket Personal Name Index to "The New York Times Index," 1975-2001 Supplement: A-Brk Byron A. Volume 21, Tome I: Cumulative Index Katalin Nun Stewart,2017-07-06 This last volume of Kierkegaard Research Sources Reception and Resources is a cumulative index to all the volumes of the series The series was originally designed in a systematic fashion in order to make it as easily usable and accessible as possible The individual parts of the series and the individual volumes have been organized to make it generally fairly simple to locate the main articles relevant for one s research interests However the placement of some individual articles might not always be completely self evident Moreover the sheer mass of material and information provided by the series makes a cumulative index a necessary accompanying resource Further given the scope of the series it was inevitable that some names or topics are mentioned more than once in the series in different places beyond the main article ostensibly dedicated to them The purpose of these indices is thus to help the readers to find an easy and direct way to the topics of their interest in the rich universe of Kierkegaard research The material of the indices is divided into three tomes Tome I is the Index of Names from A to K Tome II covers the Index of Names from L to Z while Tome III consists of the Index of Subjects and includes a complete overview of all the volumes tomes and articles of the series Telephone Directory
