Silva,2021-09-24 Contemporary philosophical research interconnects classical domains of philosophy the arts literature and social sciences This collection of essays explores the operational role of experimentation dissidence and heterogeneity in this process It offers fundamentals for the criticism of monolithical tendencies often put forward under the banner of the Speculative Turn or New Realism by means of exploring the contribution and influence of authors such as J G Hamann Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Guy Debord These philosophers historically placed within the margins of the philosophical mainstream were decisive in the emergence of the philosophical thought and practices of Deleuze Wittgenstein and Bataille as shown here The reader will also find re evaluations of the contributions of Vico Spinoza or Kant to posterity next to new readings of authors like Foucault Hadot Benjamin and Adorno with regards to their significant experimental and dissident positions French Romantic Travel Writing Christopher W. Home and its Dislocations in Nineteenth-Century France Suzanne Nash, 1993-08-31 The nineteenth century witnessed an unprecedented social restructuring that disrupted traditional notions of people and place country and city private and public spheres The break with the old order and the entry into the industrial age was most dramatically played out in France with the growth of a new urban middle class under the July monarchy and the rebuilding of Paris by Haussmann under the Second Empire The personal immediate and radical effects of these changes produced an altered conception of the meaning of home and a homeland Focusing primarily on mid nineteenth century France these essays by noted literary critics offer fascinating new accounts of the relationship between the social history of home and homelessness and the imaginative expressions of the age This probing interdisciplinary approach combining theoretical sophistication with historical detail addresses the fundamental importance of class and gender to the modern history of homelessness Its provocative readings of well known texts provide a model of cultural studies at its best and most serious

Nerval et les limbes de l'histoire Keiko Tsujikawa, 2008 Les Illuminés publiés en 1852 avec le sous-titre polémique et ambigu Les Précurseurs du socialisme est un ouvrage énigmatique Ce recueil des six portraits d'excentriques de la philosophie ne rassemble ni des illuminés ni des socialistes au sens strict et surprend le lecteur par sa récusation de la catégorisation figée comme par sa composition rhapsodique critiqués de seconde main pour la majeure partie faits d'un montage de citations ou de plagiat ces portraits restaient méconnus ou mal connus par les critiques nervaliennes Témignent-ils de l'adhésion de l'auteur à un illuminisme Sont-ils une création de Nerval ou plutôt le simple assemblage de textes appartenant à d'autres Pourquoi Nerval a-t-il choisi ces personnages marginaux plutôt que des autres figures majeures de l'illuminisme ou du socialisme Pour répondre de telles questions Keiko Tsujikawa tablit et interprète le dossier des Illuminés en exploitant les livres et documents cités ou consultés par Nerval lui-même Chaque portrait est en outre rapporté au contexte historique politique social religieux et littéraire du moment de sa parution Enfin la singularité des Illuminés dans l'ensemble de l'œuvre nervalienne augmente le sens et la portée de cette résurrection littéraire du passé travers notamment les interrogations de Nerval sur l'histoire et le temps historique Trois fils rouges tissent l'ensemble du recueil le politique le religieux ainsi que l'histoire au lendemain de la Révolution française Contre la rupture de l'histoire moderne Nerval suggère la persistance d'un autre temps celui des limbes qui préserve la survie des rêves non aboutis dans le passé ce faisant fructueux pour l'avenir

Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo Testa, 2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa's work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art

The Mediterranean as a Source of Cultural Criticism Andrea Benedetti, Ulrich van Loyen, 2019-11-26 T00:00:00+01:00 The essays contained in this volume explore the historical trajectories along which the Mediterranean has been conceptualized as a cultural religious and economical resource and how these various aspects are intertwined While staying clear of a merely imagological or representational point of view the authors consider the interplay between culturally shaped attributions for example the longstanding desire for a Mediterranean Otherness as expressed in German literature their testing in empirical encounters and the effect these encounters produce on both sides Although focused particularly on 19th and 20th century culture this volume offers a timely contribution to conceptualising the challenges of the 21st century The conjunction of both provinciality and universality the connectivity and fragmentation of the Mediterranean continues to be at the basis of the European matrix of all possible histories
