American Modernism (Re)Considered Robert C.

Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2025-08-07 What exactly is modernism and who are modernist writers? What distinguishes American modernism from its European counterpart? American Modernism (Re)Considered questions the principal distinction between modernism and other genres/movements/styles in literature through new critical readings of canonical modernist texts alongside texts which pose a problem for modernism due to their ambiguous if not marginal relation to some of its predominant tenets. It asks: Is modernism characterized principally by a transition from older forms like naturalism and realism to a style that is new, innovative and experimental? Is it found in shared understandings and alignments regarding the nature and purpose of art? Is it identifiable by modernists' treatment of various central themes including as a reaction to modernity as a response to the Boer and World wars as an interrogation of Britain's empire and its dissolution and how these events fragmented modern life? Or is it all of the above? Contributors discuss a wide range of texts by authors such as Nella Larsen, Willa Cather, Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Anne Carson, Wallace Stevens, Amrico Paredes, Richard Wright, Ernest Hemingway and T.S. Eliot to challenge the aesthetic, social and temporal boundaries of modernism in America. Through original close readings of these texts, American Modernism (Re)Considered subjects modernism to new interrogations and offers new answers to questions that remain contemporary even as they harken back to its height of popularity and interest in the mid 1920s. The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature John Morán González, Laura

Lomas, 2018-02-22 The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature emphasizes the importance of understanding Latina/o literature not simply as a US ethnic phenomenon but more broadly as an important element of a trans-American literary imagination. Engaging with the dynamics of migration, linguistic and cultural translation and the uneven distribution of resources across the Americas that characterize Latina/o literature, the essays in this History provide a critical overview of key texts, authors, themes and contexts as discussed by leading scholars in the field. This book demonstrates the relevance of Latina/o literature for a world defined by the migration of people, commodities and cultural expressions. The Workings of Diaspora Mario Nisbett, 2021-11-04 Engaging the Past, the Present and the Future: The Workings of Diaspora Jamaican Maroons and the Claims to Sovereignty shows how the lived experience of Jamaican Maroons is linked to the African Diaspora. In so doing, this interdisciplinary undertaking interrogates the definition of Diaspora but mainly emphasizes the term's use. Mario Nisbett demonstrates that an examination of Jamaican Maroon communities, particularly their socio-political development can further highlight the significance of the African Diaspora as an analytical tool He shows how Jamaican Maroons inform resistance to abjection a denial of full humanity through claiming their African origin and developing solidarity and consciousness in order to affirm black humanity This book establishes that present day Jamaican Maroons remain relevant and engage the African Diaspora to improve black standing and bolster assertions of sovereignty The Eighteenth Century American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, Jim Springer Borck, 2006-12 This 17th volume from the series of bibliographies of the 18th century is divided into sections on printing and bibliographic studies historical social and economic studies philosophy science and religion the fine arts literary studies and individual authors

Buildings and Society Anthony D. King, 2003-10-04 Buildings are essentially social and cultural products They result from social needs and accommodate a variety of functions economic social political religious Their size appearance location and form result not simply from physical factors such as materials climate or technology nor from architects designs but from a society's ideas its forms of economic and social organisation and the beliefs and values which prevail at any one time Society produces its buildings and the buildings help to maintain many of its social forms

Radicalizing Lawrence Robert Burden, 2021-12-28 In this study of D H Lawrence and critical theory Robert Burden pays particular attention to the critical formations that underpin the reception history of the main novels including the much maligned leadership novels because strong readings have always contested the meaning and significance of Lawrence and because there has been a persistent reluctance to approach his writing through post structuralist theory This study demonstrates in some detail that once Lawrence's texts are the objects of the newer critical paradigms their principles of coherence are understood differently and that older notions of textual unity are displaced by aesthetic structures of degrees of generic and linguistic destabilization This enables a radicalizing of Lawrence's fiction by drawing out its deconstructive effects on his myth making and essentialist notions of the self The sexual identities represented in the fiction are read as experiments or thought adventures as Lawrence himself characterized his work The different approaches to Lawrence's writing in this study lead to a radical reassessment of his relationship to Modernism especially in the light of the more elastic concept of Modernism in recent discussion and one which traditional Lawrence scholars have ignored What emerges is a more self deconstructive Lawrence with some surprising results

Jacques Rivette Douglas Morrey, Alison Smith, 2019-01-31 Jacques Rivette is perhaps the best kept secret of French cinema A founding figure in the New Wave and at the centre of the Cahiers du cin ma team he developed into one of the most unusual and adventurous French directors of the last sixty years yet his work remains little known in comparison with his contemporaries and this study is the first in English to look at the full span of his career Starting with his decisively influential film criticism of the 1950s it moves from the New Wave through the complex experimental films of the 1970s to the challenging playful dramas which ensured his visibility during the following two decades and ends in the present including Rivette's most recent films Histoire de Marie et Julien 2003 and Ne touchez pas la hache 2007 The book takes a thematic approach offering detailed discussion of key elements of Rivette's film world including games conspiracy and jealousy as well as a study of what Rivette's cinema adds to our understanding of key theoretical concepts in Film Studies such as narrative space and adaptation There are many close analyses of sequences from Rivette's films including Paris nous appartient 1961 Celine et Julie vont en bateau 1974 and La Belle Noiseuse 1991 The ^AOxford Handbook of Critical Improvisation Studies, Volume 1 George E. Lewis, Benjamin Piekut, 2016-08-22 The Oxford Handbook of Critical Improvisation Studies gathers contributions from more than sixty authors pioneering new scholarly approaches to improvisation in the arts humanities social and natural sciences

Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction Helga Ramsey-Kurz, Melissa Kennedy, 2017-11-01 Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction engages urgently with wealth testing current assumptions of inequality in order to push beyond reductive contemporary readings of the gaping abyss between rich and poor Shifting away from longstanding debates in postcolonial criticism focused on poverty and abjection the book marshals fresh perspectives on material spiritual and cultural prosperity as found in the literatures of formerly colonized spaces The chapters follow the money to illuminate postcolonial fiction's awareness of the ambiguities of wealth acquired under colonial capitalism and transmuted in contemporary neoliberalism They weigh idealistic projections of individual and collective wellbeing against the stark realities of capital accumulation and excessive consumption They remain alert to the polysemy suggested by Uncommon Wealths both registering the imperial economic urge to ensure common wealth and referencing the unconventional or non-Western the unusual even fictitious and contrasting privately coveted and exclusively owned wealth with visions of a shared good Arranged into four sections centred on aesthetics injustice indigeneity and cultural location the individual chapters show how writers of postcolonial fiction including Aravind Adiga Amit Chaudhuri Anita Desai Patricia Grace Mohsin Hamid Stanley Gazemba Tomson Highway Lebogang Matseke Zakes Mda Michael Ondaatje Kim Scott and Alexis Wright employ prosperity and affluence as a lens through which to re-examine issues of race ethnicity gender and family the cultural value of heritage land and social cohesion and such conflicting imperatives as economic growth individual fulfilment social and environmental responsibility and just distribution
