Symlog Case Study Kit Robert F. Bales,1980 Social Interaction Systems Robert Bales,2017-09-08 Social Interaction Systems is the culmination of a half century of work in the field of social psychology by Robert Freed Bales a pioneer at the Department of Social Relations at Harvard University Led by Talcott Parsons Gordon W Allport Henry A Murray and Clyde M Kluckhohn the Harvard Project was intended to establish an integrative framework for social psychology one based on the interaction process augmented by value content analysis Bales sees this approach as a personal involvement that goes far beyond the classical experimental approach to the study of groups Bales developed SYMLOG which stands for systematic multiple level observation of groups The SYMLOG Consulting Group approach was worldwide as well as interactive It created a data bank that made possible a search for general laws of human interaction far beyond anything thus far known In his daringsearch for universal features Bales redefines the fundamental boundaries of the field and in so doing establishes criteria for the behavior and values of leaders and followers Bales offers a new field theory an appreciation of the multiple contexts in which people live Bales does not aim to eradicate differences but to understand them In this sense the values inherent in any interaction situation permit the psychologist to appreciate the sources of polarization as they actually exist between conservative and liberal individualistic and authoritarian libertarian and communitarian Bales repeatedly emphasizes that the mental processes of individuals and their social interactions take place in systematic contexts which can be measured Hence they permit explanation and prediction of behavior in a more exact way than in past traditions Bales has offered a pioneering work that has the potential to move us into a new theoretical epoch no less than a new century His work holds out the promise of synthesis and support for psychologists sociologists and all who work with groups and organizations of all kinds SYMLOG Robert Freed Bales,1980 The Symlog Practitioner Richard Polley,A. Paul Hare,Phillip Stone,Philip James Stone,1988-08-12 SYMLOG is an acronym for a powerful theory and method of group observation Systematic Multiple Level Observation of Groups The Symlog Practitioner draws on an international network of SYMLOG researchers and practitioners to present a varied collection of cases demonstrating the full range of settings in which SYMLOG has been applied This volume is an important contribution to both the theory and practice of small group observation and analysis making it indispensable for teachers students and researchers in the growing field of small group research and for practitioners and consultants who wish to use SYMLOG in the field Construction Communication Stephen Emmitt,Christopher A. Gorse,2009-02-12 Communicating the design intent from initial briefing through the design stage and on to the actual construction is vital to the success of any building project This book looks at communication across physical organisational and cultural barriers with a view to improving the design and construction process The authors investigate communication issues across physical organisational and cultural barriers and present clear guidance and practical advice Communication in Construction Teams Stephen Emmitt,Christopher Gorse,2006-09-27 Construction teams are usually complex interdisciplinary and temporary and as such the need for effective communication is crucial. However, published data regarding the manner in which individuals interact within the temporary project team is scarce with little other than anecdotal evidence available. Recognizing this gap, Communication in Construction Teams provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on interpersonal communication and delivers a critical review of various research methods previously used in and outside the construction management field. Making use of Bales interaction process analysis (IPA), a tool used successfully in many fields to collect interaction data, the text investigates the link between successful projects and the effectiveness of communication, finding that participants in the construction process exhibit regular patterns of interaction and most significantly that there are different patterns of interaction associated with successful and unsuccessful projects. Putting forward a number of practical suggestions to assist all actors involved in construction projects, this insightful publication will be of interest to researchers in the fields of building design and construction management.

Architectural Management Stephen Emmitt, Matthijs Prins, Ad den Otter, 2009-04-13 Architectural Management represents the state of the art of research and practice in the field and includes contributions from leading international figures. The book looks back at over a decade of research into architectural management, considers the present challenges and opportunities, and looks to the future. You will find a review of earlier work and developments as well as a focus on new research areas. The book is divided into six sections representing topical themes; each section contains two research-based chapters and one practical case study. Case studies are from six European countries: Belgium, Denmark, Finland, The Netherlands, Norway, and the UK.

Leadership, Beyond Establishment Views James G. Hunt, Uma Sekaran, Chester Schriesheim, 1982 Volume 6 of the Leadership Symposia sponsored by the Department of Administrative Sciences and College of Business Administration at Southern Illinois University Carbondale charts the state of the field of leadership through a judicious mixture of established and emerging scholars. The text is broken into four parts, with each part containing an Introduction by the editors. Part 1 consists of Leadership and Managerial Behavior as Loosely Coupled Systems for Moving Beyond Establishment Views by the editors, The Relevance of Some Studies of Managerial Work and Behavior to Leadership Research by Rosemary Stewart, Unstructured Nonparticipant Observation and the Study of Leaders' Interpersonal Contacts by Robert S. Bussom, Lars L. Larson and William M. Vicars: Leaders on Line by Michael M. Lombardo and Morgan W. McCall Jr., and Various Paths Beyond Establishment Views by Bernard Wilpert.
