variegated contributions offers a comprehensive view of the phenomenon exploring the issue from political social religious and public health perspectives and seeking to propose a new definition of architecture as a visual emotional language Together the chapters show how the representation of virtues and emotions through architecture was part of a symbolic practice shared by many across the Italian context This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying architectural history the history of emotions and the history of art

Sir Gardner Wilkinson and His Circle Jason

Thompson, 2010-07-22 Following in the footsteps of Napoleon's army Europeans invaded Egypt in the early nineteenth century to gaze in wonder at the massive inscrutable remains of its ancient civilizations One of these travelers was a twenty four year old Englishman John Gardner Wilkinson His copious observations of ancient and modern Egyptian places artifacts and lifeways recorded in such widely read publications as Manners and Customs of the Ancient Egyptians and Handbook for Travellers in Egypt made him the leading early Victorian authority on ancient Egypt and paved the way for the scientific study of Egyptology In this first full scale biography of Wilkinson 1797-1875 Jason Thompson skillfully portrays both the man and his era He follows Wilkinson during his initial sojourn in Egypt 1821-1833 as Wilkinson immersed himself in a contemporary Egyptian lifestyle and in study of its ancient past He shows Wilkinson in his circle of friends among them Edward William Lane Robert Hay and Frederick Catherwood And he traces how Wilkinson continued to use his Egyptian material in the decades following his return to England With the rise of professional Egyptology in the middle and later nineteenth century Sir Gardner Wilkinson came to be viewed as an amateur and his popularity diminished Drawing upon recently opened sources Thompson returns Wilkinson to his rightful place within centuries of Egyptian scholarship and assesses both the vision and the limitations of his work The result is a compelling portrait of a Victorian gentleman scholar and his cultural milieu

Zanou, 2018-11-08 Transnational Patriotism in the Mediterranean investigates the long process of transition from a world of empires to a world of nation states by narrating the biographies of a group of people who were born within empires but came of age surrounded by the emerging vocabulary of nationalism much of which they themselves created It is the story of a generation of intellectuals and political thinkers from the Ionian Islands who experienced the collapse of the Republic of Venice and the dissolution of the common cultural and political space of the Adriatic and who contributed to the creation of Italian and Greek nationalisms By uncovering this forgotten intellectual universe Transnational Patriotism in the Mediterranean retrieves a world characterized by multiple cultural intellectual and political affiliations that have since been buried by the conventional narrative of the formation of nation states Transnational Patriotism in the Mediterranean rethinks the origins of Italian and Greek nationalisms and states highlighting the intellectual connection between the Italian peninsula Greece and Russia and reestablishing the lost link between the changing geopolitical contexts of western Europe the Mediterranean and the Balkans in the Age of Revolutions It re inscribes important intellectuals and political figures considered national fathers of Italy and Greece such as Ugo Foscolo Dionysios Solomos Ioannis Kapodistrias and Niccol Tommaseo into their regional and multicultural context and shows how nations emerged from an intermingling rather than a clash of ideas concerning empire and liberalism Enlightenment and religion revolution and conservatism and East and West

Elizabeth Craven: Writer, Feminist and European Julia Gasper, 2018-04-13 Elizabeth Craven s fascinating life was full of travel love affairs and scandals but this biography the first to appear for a century is the only one to focus on her as a writer and draw attention to the full range of her output which raises her stature as an author considerably Born into the upper class of Georgian England she was pushed into marriage at sixteen to Lord Craven and became a celebrated society hostess and beauty as well as mother to seven children Though acutely conscious of her relative lack of education as a woman she ventured into writing poetry stories and plays Incompatibility and infidelities on both sides ended her marriage and she had to move to France where living in seclusion she wrote the little known feminist work Letters to Her Son In the years that followed she travelled extensively all over Europe and turned her letters into a travelogue which is one of her best known works On her return she went to live in Germany as the companion and eventually second wife of the Margrave of Ansbach At his court she organised and appeared in theatricals and wrote several more plays of great interest including The Modern Philosopher In 1792 she and the Margrave settled in England where they were never fully accepted by the more strait laced pillars of society but mixed with all the musicians and actors and the more rakish of the Regency set Craven continued to put on her own theatricals and write for the theatre In her old age she moved to Naples where she passed her time sailing gardening and writing her Memoirs Even in her final years scandal dogged her and Craven made her feminist principles and criticisms of the laws of marriage apparent through her involvement in the notorious divorce case of Queen Caroline
