McQuail,2018-02-14 New Zealand author Janet Frame 1924 2004 during her lifetime published 11 novels three collections of short stories a volume of poetry and a children s book The details of her life her tragic early years her confinement in a psychiatric hospital and her miraculous reprieve overshadow her work and she remains largely neglected by scholars These essays focus on Frame s autobiography short stories and novels Contributors from around the world explore a range of topics including her mother s Christadelphian faith her relationships with two 20th century icons William Theophilus Brown and John Money and a view of Frame in the context of trauma studies Two of the essays were presented at the 2014 Northeast Modern Language Association convention THE TESTIMONY OF JOHN: 1907 Biblical Study Notes on the Gospel of John George N.H. Peters,2017-01-01 From cover to cover conception to completion this book is about Jesus It addresses and answers the fundamental question of His identity and mission The book never waivers from this original purpose and structure Who better to inform us of Jesus than John the disciple whom Jesus loved the person to whom Jesus often confided in and to whom He ultimately entrusted with His own future Revelation And who better to expose these truths than Mr George N H Peters gifted Bible teacher and faithful steward of the Word of God throughout his lifetime Composed in the form of study notes the author directs attention away from modern mystical interpretations of this Gospel towards what John intended to accomplish i e confront the reader with the predicted Messiah Jesus and in so doing provide reasons to believe and through believing find the very promise of eternal life John calls this work his testimony like a witness pleading before a jury of his peers he lays out a selection of evidence He claims that he could easily have written volumes but these things he wrote so that the reader might believe The beauty of this book lies in the evidence John chooses to put forth the impact of the book slightly over 100 years old stems from the ability of Mr Peters to point out these things and then allow the testimony to speak for itself Over the last century many able men and women have undertaken to expound the Gospel of John The reader will not find a more plainly written account than what Mr Peters penned during the last years of his life Pediatric Psycho-oncology Shulamith Kreitler, Myriam Weyl Ben-Arush, Andrés Martin, 2012-07-02

Like the ground breaking first edition Pediatric Psycho oncology Second edition puts the child at the centre of medical and psychological care It broadens the focus beyond treatment and cure to consider the quality of life of the child and their family Written by an international group of pediatric oncologists and psychologists psycho oncologists brought together by an expert editorial team it focuses on the real life practical aspects of children undergoing treatment for cancer This edition has been restructured and opens with a major section on Active treatment which includes chapters addressing quality of life pain psychosocial aspects of treatment and interventions art therapy and different fantasy based techniques palliative care communication and education as well as a new chapter on psychopharmacology Shorter sections then discuss survivorship and care of the dying child including a new chapter on bereavement The final section comprises new chapters on ethical considerations and on addressing the emotional needs of children whose parents have cancer as well as a case study on international collaboration An appendix provides a comprehensive overview of tools for evaluation and assessment in pediatric psychooncology This book is a highly practical resource that will be invaluable for all health care professionals looking after children and adolescents with cancer American Handbook of Psychiatry

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus,Susan G. Fowler,2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population

Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman,Betty J. Kramer,Sara Sanders,2021-08-31 Living Through Loss provides a foundational identification of the many ways in which people experience loss over the life course from childhood to old age It examines the interventions most effective at each phase of life combining theory sound clinical practice and empirical research with insights emerging from powerful accounts of personal experience The authors emphasize that loss and grief are universal yet highly individualized Loss comes in many forms and can include not only a loved one's death but also divorce adoption living with chronic illness caregiving retirement and relocation or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach the topic from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges people's capacity to find meaning in their losses and integrate grief into their lives The book explores the varying roles of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in responses to loss Presenting a variety of models approaches and resources Living Through Loss offers invaluable lessons that can be applied in any practice setting by a wide range of human service and health care professionals This second edition features new and expanded content on diversity and trauma including discussions of gun violence police brutality suicide and an added focus on systemic racism

Poetry of Mourning Jahan Ramazani, 1994-05-28 Through readings of elegies self-elegies war poems and the blues this book covers a wide range of poets including Thomas Hardy Wilfred Owen Wallace Stevens Langston Hughes W H Auden Sylvia Plath and Seamus Heaney It is grounded in genre theory and in the psychoanalysis of mourning

Southern and Western Literary Messenger and Review Edgar Allan Poe, 1850 Women and the Material Culture of Death Beth Fowkes Tobin, 2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women's material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the dead are explored in this collection as well as women's affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life
