A. Kulawik,2024-01-05 This book looks at Neobaroque Latin American fiction poetry essay and performance from the 1970s to the early 2000s in order to explore the cultural hybridization and transgressive identity transformations at play in these works It shows how the ornamental style and boldly experimental techniques are an effective strategy in presenting decentered identities in sexually ambiguous multiethnic interracial transcultural and mutant characters as well as in metafictional narrators and authors In this way the book demonstrates the potential of Neobaroque works to destabilize normative essentialist and binary categories of identity The study focuses on Latin America as a cultural macroregion drawing on examples from a variety of countries including Argentina Uruguay Chile Bolivia Brazil Cuba Mexico and the US Mexican border Drawing on gender queer trans and Chicana feminist theory it argues for an alternative approach to a model of the Self or a theory of selfhood derived from the exuberant style and experimental techniques of the Neobaroque      Once
