Sister Death Beatrice Marovich, 2023-02-07 Winner 2024 Bela Kornitzer Alumni Award Drew University Life and death are commonly seen as representing the starkest of binaries Death is the ultimate adversary of all that lives Beatrice Marovich argues that such understandings of mortality have been deeply influenced by a strain of Christian political theology that has left its mark on both religious and secular narratives Adapting the figure of Sister Death from Saint Francis of Assisi she calls for recognizing that life and death are family Drawing on a wide range of sources from Toni Morrison to Jacques Derrida psychoanalysis to grassroots death positive movements Marovich critiques a racialized political theology that pits life and death against each other in a state of endless war In a time of extinctions it is necessary to disrupt this dominant story in order to apprehend death as a collective multispecies event Sister Death proposes an alternative view in which life and death are not mortal enemies destined for mutual destruction Instead they are engaged in a contested tense and sometimes mutually empowering form of connection a sisterhood Eloquent and approachable this book deftly integrates the insights of a number of disciplines to provide a profound reconsideration of the relations between life and death Sister Death also features a series of original works by the artist Krista Dragomer that stage an ongoing conceptual conversation with the text

Daly is located in the Western intellectual tradition Daly may be highly critical of conventional Western epistemological and theological traditions but she nevertheless appropriates themes out of context for the building of her own systematic philosophy The following are just a few of the many themes explored in this volume the question of subjectivity understood as an ongoing process of becoming the ambiguity of the need for feminists of colonial nations to speak out about violence against women in other parts of the world while that speaking carries with it the stamp of a colonial location the territoriality of lesbian and women's space the theological dimensions of twentieth century Western philosophy Contributors are Wanda Warren Berry Purushottama Bilimoria Debra Campbell Molly Dragiewicz Frances Gray Amber L Katherine AnaLouise Keating Anne Marie Korte Mar a Lugones Geraldine Moane Sheilagh A Mogford Laurel C Schneider Renuka Sharma and Marja Suhonen
