Six Centuries In East Asia China Japan And Korea From The 14th Century To 191:

East Asian International Relations in History Kyu-hyun Jo, 2024-08-28 This book provides a sweeping overview of East Asian international relations in history from the nineteenth century onwards with a focus on Korea and its relationship with East Asia and the USA In contrast with many books which concentrate exclusively on the twentieth century this book offers a long term perspective on modernity and modernization in East Asia It addresses the tributary system the Meiji Restoration Japanese imperialism in East Asia and the Cold War in East Asia It also incorporates the First and Second Indochina Wars from Vietnam s perspective and expands the geographical scope of East Asia beyond the traditional framework of Korea Japan and China The book begins with the tributary system as a starting point of East Asian modernity in contrast to the old view that the tributary system was not a modern system It rejects the idea that Japan was modernizing while Korea remained stagnant and shows why Japanese colonialism continues to be controversial and problematic Through the book s emphasis on Vietnam s perspective of the Indochina Wars it places much value on nationalism anti imperialism and decolonization as forces of modernity and modernization Relevant to scholars and students in history international relations and East Asian studies more broadly the book brings with it a novel fresh and innovative approach to East Asian history

Toshokan, 1980 Bibliography of Asian Studies , 1994 Fish, Fishing and Community in North Korea and Neighbours Robert Winstanley-Chesters, 2019-10-02 This open access book explores the histories and geographies of fishing in North Korea and the surrounding nations With the ideological and environmental history of North Korea in mind the book examines the complex interactions between local communities fish themselves wider ecosystems and the politics of Pyongyang through the lens of critical geography fisheries statistics and management science as well as North Korean and more generally Korean and East Asian studies There is increasing global interest in North Korea its politics people and landscapes and as such this book describes encounters with North Korean fishing communities as well as unusual moments in the field in the People s Republic of China the Russian Federation and the Republic of Korea South Korea It addresses fish fishing infrastructure fishing science and fishing statistics and other non human elements of North Korean and other nations developmental regimes as actors and participants within them as much as humans and their technologies The book enables readers to gain extensive insights into the aspirations and practices of fishing in North Korea and its neighbours the navigation of difficult political and developmental situations and changing ecological realities in a time of environmental and climate crisis familiar to many across the globe Food Security, Agricultural Policies and Economic Growth Niek Koning, 2017-04-21 Using a political economic approach supplemented with insights from human ecology this volume analyzes the long term dynamics of food security and economic growth The book begins by discussing the nature of preindustrial food crises and the changes that have occurred since the 19th century with the ascent of technical science and the fossil fuel revolution It explains how these changes improved living standards but that the realization of this improvement was usually dependent on government support for smallholder modernization The author sets out how the evolution of food security in different regions has been influenced by farm policy choices and how these choices were shaped by local societal characteristics international relations and changing configurations in metropolitan countries Separate chapters are devoted to the interaction of this evolution with debates on food security and economic growth and with international economic policies The final chapters highlight the new challenges for global food security that will arise as traditional sources of biomass production and the more easily extractable reserves of fossil biomass become depleted or can no longer be used Overall the book emphasizes the inadequacy of current explanations with regard to these challenges It explores what is needed to ensure a sustainable future and calls for a rethinking of these issues a necessary reflection in today's unstable global political situation Books in Print Supplement ,1988 Historical Atlas of Northeast Asia, 1590-2010 Narangoa Li, Robert Cribb, 2014-09-02 Four hundred years ago indigenous peoples occupied the vast region that today encompasses Korea Manchuria the Mongolian Plateau and Eastern Siberia Over time these populations struggled to maintain autonomy as Russia China and Japan sought hegemony over the region Especially from the turn of the twentieth century onward indigenous peoples pursued self determination in a number of ways and new states many of them now largely forgotten rose and fell as great power imperialism indigenous nationalism and modern ideologies competed for dominance This atlas tracks the political configuration of Northeast Asia in ten year segments from 1590 to 1890 in five year segments from 1890 to 1960 and in ten year segments from 1960 to 2010 delineating the distinct history and importance of the region The text follows the rise and fall of the Qing dynasty in China founded by the semi nomadic Manchus the Russian colonization of Siberia the growth of Japanese influence the movements of peoples armies and borders and political social and economic developments reflecting the turbulence of the land that was once the world's cradle of conflict Compiled from detailed research in English Chinese Japanese French Dutch German Mongolian and Russian sources the Historical Atlas of Northeast Asia incorporates information made public with the fall of the Soviet Union and includes fifty five specially drawn maps as well as twenty historical maps contrasting local and outsider perspectives Four introductory maps survey the region's diverse topography climate vegetation and ethnicity State Formation through Emulation Chin-Hao Huang, David C. Kang, 2022-08-04 Argues that states formed in East Asia a thousand years earlier than in Europe emulating China rather than competing with it The New Continentalism Kent E. Calder, 2012-04-24 In this groundbreaking book Kent E Calder argues that a new transnational configuration is emerging in Asia driven by economic growth rising energy demand and the erosion of longstanding geopolitical divisions What Calder calls the New Silk Road with a strengthening multi faceted relationship between East Asia and the Middle East at its core could eventually emerge as one of the world s most important multilateral configurations Straddling the border between comparative politics and international relations theory this important book will stimulate debate and discussion in both fields Pre-Industrial Korea and Japan in Environmental Perspective Conrad D. Totman,2004 Taking the history of Japan and Korea and their environmental interactions from late Pleistocene down to about 1870 AD this work aims to make a convincing case for viewing the two countries together looking at their pre industrial experiences Food in Time and Place Paul Freedman,Joyce E. Chaplin,Ken Albala,2014-10-31 Food and cuisine are important subjects for historians across many areas of study Food after all is one of the most basic human needs and a foundational part of social and cultural histories Such topics as famines food supply nutrition and public health are addressed by historians specializing in every era and every nation Food in Time and Place delivers an unprecedented review of the state of historical research on food endorsed by the American Historical Association providing readers with a geographically chronologically and topically broad understanding of food cultures from ancient Mediterranean and medieval societies to France and its domination of haute cuisine Teachers students and scholars in food history will appreciate coverage of different thematic concerns such as transfers of crops conquest colonization immigration and modern forms of globalization

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1999-08 Understanding Non-State Actors Eran Zohar,2023-10-24 Understanding Non State Actors aims to reduce the scarcity of academic literature on armed non state actors NSAs that have always been a part of world politics and wars This monograph offers possibly for the first time a systematic historical review as well as a substantive theory of NSAs and their arming efforts The world has been astonished by the ability of the well armed Hamas to inflict heavy losses on the powerful Israel Thus from the Jewish rebellion against Rome to the war between the Ukrainian separatists and the Ukrainian government NSAs weapons acquisition has been vital for the build up of their force enabling both the employment of that force and its sustainability While weapons are not necessarily the most important factor in military build up NSAs need weapons to fight and revolts usually erupt after the organizers have acquired a certain number of weapons Conversely many revolts lose momentum and operations are not carried out or turn ineffective due to shortages of arms and ammunition A major theme of this monograph is that in spite of dramatic political and technological changes armed NSAs in different periods have employed similar methods to acquire weapons Self production looting and stealing external support and the arms trade were always the major ways for NSAs to acquire weapons though the importance of each method and the type of arms has changed remarkably over time Understanding Non State Actors discusses the factors political social cultural technological and organizational that have both facilitated and constrained the ability of NSAs to acquire arms Especially lecturers and students of Military Terrorism Conflict studies War and peace studies will benefit from this study The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland,1945 Buddhism W. Zwalf,1985 Catalog of an exhibition drawn mainly from the resources of the British Museum and British Library Preface
