Space Sirens, Scientists and Princesses Dean Conrad, 2018-06-21 Women are now central to many science fiction films but that has not always been the case Female characters from their token presence or absence in the silent pictures of the early 20th century to their roles as assistants pulp princesses and sexy robots and eventually as scientists soldiers and academics have often struggled to be seen and heard in a genre traditionally regarded as of men by men and for men Surveying more than 650 films across 120 years the author charts the highs and lows of women's visibility in science fiction's cinematic history through the effects of two world wars social and cultural upheavals and advances in film technology 60

Postcards Rachael Chadwick, 2015-02-26 The heartfelt and uplifting story of how a project to scatter 60 Postcards in memory of her mother helped a young girl come to terms with her loss On 11 February 2012 Rachael Chadwick lost her Mother to cancer just sixteen days after first being diagnosed and her world shattered right in front of her Utterly fed up of the milestones and reminders in December of that year she decided she would do something different and created a project based around her Mum's approaching 60th Birthday Desperate to spread the word about the wonderful person she had lost Rachael had the brainwave of leaving notes around a city in her memory Deciding she would take it a step further she wondered what would happen if she could ask people to respond to her Full of hope and energy she hand wrote sixty postcards each with her email address at the bottom asking the finder to get in touch But one question remained where should she go Knowing how much she longed to visit Paris the last gift that Rachael's mum had given her was Eurostar vouchers and so it seemed fitting that this would be her chosen city So off she went with a group of friends to celebrate discover and to scatter her memories Filling their time in Paris with sight seeing food and drink laughter and of course postcards
