Placing Movies Jonathan Rosenbaum,2023-09-01 Jonathan Rosenbaum

longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly, Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today. Placing Movies, the first collection of his work, gathers together thirty of his most distinctive and illuminating pieces. Written over a span of twenty-one years, these essays cover an extraordinarily broad range of films, from Hollywood blockbusters to foreign art movies to experimental cinema. They include not just reviews but perceptive commentary on directors, actors, and trends, and thoughtful analysis of the practice of film criticism. It is this last element, Rosenbaum's reflections on the art of film criticism, that sets this collection apart from other volumes of film writing. Both in the essays themselves and in the section introductions, Rosenbaum provides a rare insider's view of his profession, the backstage politics, the formulation of critical judgments, the function of film commentary. Taken together, these pieces serve as a guided tour of the profession of film criticism. They also serve as representative samples of Rosenbaum's unique brand of film writing. Among the highlights are memoirs of director Jacques Tati and maverick critic Manny Farber, celebrations of classics such as Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The Manchurian Candidate, and considered reevaluations of Orson Welles and Woody Allen.

Julie Snow Architects Julie Snow, Julie Snow Architects, 2005-04-07 It's an unfortunate reality that architects practicing in the great expanse between the East and West coasts all too often find themselves beyond the radar of the profession's so-called tastemakers. And it's especially a shame in the case of Julie Snow, a Minneapolis-based architect who has over the past decade developed one of the most inventive practices anywhere in the United States. Snow's meticulously constructed work has the structural opacity and formal integrity that characterized Mies van der Rohe's architecture but with a sense of humanity and a sensitivity to the environment that seems borrowed from her Midwestern progenitor, Frank Lloyd Wright. This, the first monograph on Snow's work, provides in-depth documentation of 14 of her residential, institutional, corporate, and public projects, including the Koehler Residence in New Brunswick, Canada; a series of Minneapolis Light Rail Stations; the Minnesota Children's Museum; and the University of South Dakota School of Business. Julie Snow Architect is produced in collaboration with award-winning designer Andrew Blauvelt and features an introductory essay by Jan Abrams, director of the Minnesota Design Institute.
